

5 year Bible reading plan – week 12

Week 12 – 29/1/17

Monday: Matthew 5:21-48. Of all the teachings in these verses, which one challenges you the most? If you need to correct your heart attitude, take hold of the advice of Jesus and do something about it.

Tuesday: Genesis 12:1-20. Abram obeyed God and did not delay in moving on, even though he was short on specifics. Abram's life is a model of faith in action, trusting in the promises of God. What do you need to trust God for in your life?

Wednesday: Proverbs 2:1-11. As we search for wisdom which is very precious and comes from the Lord, what are some of the benefits that we can experience in our lives?

Thursday: Joshua 11:1-23. Although Joshua was outnumbered, on unfamiliar turf and ill-equipped to face such a vast army, he did not give up, but listened to the instruction of the Lord, keeping to every word that was spoken, bringing victory to Israel.

Friday: Romans 6:15-23. If Paul were around today, what would he say enslaves our society? Why not pray for those whom we know that are enslaved to sin that they might become slaves to God.

Weekend: Isaiah 10:10-34. Isaiah looked back to the stories of Moses and Gideon to provide hope for the people. What stories of God's grace and deliverance can you look back upon to find hope in times of difficulty?
