

5 year Bible reading plan – week 16

Week 16 – 26/2/17

Monday: Matthew 8:1-27. What do you learn about faith from the 5 incidents mentioned in these verses?

Tuesday: Genesis 16:1-16. Despite Sarah & Abraham's weaknesses, God still used them! If God asked you the question he asked Hagar in v8, would you be clear about your vision and service for God in the next 12 months or so?

Wednesday: Psalm 17:1-15. Which verse speaks to you today that you can make into your personal prayer?

Thursday: Joshua 15:1-63. Notice Acsah's request. She recognized that owning land in the desert was not enough without springs of water. Thank God that even in the desert place, we can experience the living water of the Spirit.

Friday: Romans 8: 26-39. Commenting on v28, Dallas Willard says "Nothing irredeemable has happened or can happen to us on our way to our destiny in God's full world." Do you believe that?

Weekend: Isaiah 15:1-16:14. In a passage declaring judgement on Moab for their ill treatment of Israel, Isaiah gives us a glimpse of the kingdom rule of Jesus (16:5). Does his description of Jesus fit your experience of him?
