

5 year Bible reading plan – week 62

Week 62– w/c 14/1/18

Monday: Matthew 26:47-68. Jesus still called Judas his “friend” despite knowing that he had come to betray him. What does this tell you about how you should relate to those who you do not like, or who treat you badly?

Tuesday: Exodus 3:1-22. God got Moses’ attention when he saw a bush that was burning but not consumed by the fire. What has God done in your life to get your attention? How open are you to hearing his voice today?

Wednesday: 1 Samuel 11:1-15. Saul’s show of power and the resounding victory gave him credibility in the eyes of the people, and his kingship was confirmed at Gilgal. What victories has Jesus won in your life that confirm him as your king?

Thursday: Psalms 47:1-9. Read each verse of today's Psalm as an expression of praise. Use it as a springboard to speak out a response to God in worship in your own words – 9 sentences that become your psalm of praise for today.

Friday: Isaiah 60:1-22. This chapter expresses something of the reflected glory that the people of God have when they are walking closely with the Lord. Count your blessings today – write down as many benefits and good things as you can that result from your walk with God.

Weekend: 1 Corinthians 15:12-34. Read v33 again. Mixing with people who deny the resurrection is ok, but spending too much time with such people is not helpful. We need a balance of relationships. Have you got the balance right? List those who encourage your faith, who you encourage in faith, and who are non-Christians you are trying to reach and pray for them.
