

5 year Bible reading plan – week 68

Week 68 - 25/02/18

Monday: Mark 1:1-20. As Jesus approached the fishermen and called out to them, they left everything and followed Jesus. How long did it take for you to make up your mind to follow Jesus? What things are holding back your non-Christian friends from following Jesus? Pray specifically into that area of their lives.

Tuesday: Exodus 9:1-35. Clearly God's words, works and who he was, were having an impact on at least some members of Pharaoh's staff, who acted to protect their servants and livestock. What impact did God make on your life to convince you of who he was?

Wednesday: 1 Samuel 16:1-23. In determining who God had chosen to be king, what standard of selection is Samuel specifically told to avoid using? Why was this so important? Think about Proverbs 4:23 and Matthew 12:34b.

Thursday: Psalm 51:1-19. As David confesses his sin of adultery with Bathsheba and comes to that place of repentance he recognizes that the only way back into a right relationship with God lies through a broken and contrite heart where God will restore and renew. What do we need to confess and put right before God today?

Friday: Isaiah 66:1-24. In the first two verses, the Lord reminds the people of His great majesty: heaven is His throne, the earth is His footstool and he has created all things. He causes them to realize that there is nothing they can make that could even begin to contain the greatness of His presence or do justice to the greatness of His glory. Praise him for who he is today.

Weekend: 2 Corinthians 2:1-11. As Paul faced the stresses and pressures of life, even to the point of feeling like he couldn't take it anymore, how did he deal with these things? Maybe you know of others who are going through tough times right now, Paul encourages us to pray for them that God may be glorified.
