

5 year Bible reading plan – week 87

Week 87 – 8/7/18

Monday: Mark 10:1-16. In v1 we are told of one of Jesus' habits or "customs" which was to teach those who came to him. What habits have you built into your life that encourage your spiritual growth and ministry?

Tuesday: Exodus 28:1-43. When Aaron came into the Lord's presence, there were two things over his heart: the people that mattered to him, the 12 tribes (v29), and the means of making right decisions (v30). Ask God to bless those on your heart today or pray for help in the choices you must make today.

Wednesday: 2 Samuel 3:1-21. Because he felt his own position under threat when David welcomed Abner, Joab killed Abner by deceit and in cold blood. Insecurity and a feeling of inferiority cause us all to behave badly when we give in to it. How does knowing Jesus help us deal with our emotional weaknesses? Ps 112:1,8 may help you answer!

Thursday: Proverbs 11:20-31. These verses give wise counsel on finding favour with God, the need for discretion, generosity, soul winning, and the benefits of right living. In what area of your life does God's wise counsel in these verses apply to you today?

Friday: Jeremiah 18:1-23. One of the worst things God could ever accuse us of, is forgetting him and turning to idols, yet that is exactly what Israel had done (v15). Are there areas of your life where God seems to have been excluded, ignored, or forgotten?

Saturday: 2 Corinthians 12:1-10. Our weaknesses and struggles give room in our lives for God's grace and power to be seen (vv9,10). Do you have the same attitude as Paul, in verse 10? If not, why not? How can we develop this attitude more in our lives?
