

Monday: Genesis 12:1-20

Think: Abram was a man of faith and obedient to God, yet still felt insecure when going to Egypt, relying on his own (dishonest) efforts to keep himself safe. What are you facing that tempts you to trust your own efforts more than Jesus?

Tuesday: Genesis 18:1-15

Consider: Sarah wasn't sure, but ask yourself the question in verse 14: "Is anything too hard for the LORD?" The answer is obvious – whatever you are facing!

Wednesday: Genesis 19:15 - 19:29

Reflect: Consider: Is there anything in your life that would attract God's judgement, and that you need to flee from? When you become aware of sin, do you immediately turn from it (repent) or do you hesitate, like Lot and his family?

Thursday: Genesis 21:1-21

Reflect: Verse 11 reveals Abraham's distress & God's response. When God speaks and gives us direction, it often changes the way we feel. How attentive are you to hear His voice? What could you do to hear Him more clearly?

Friday: Genesis 22:1 - 22:19

Sacrificial worship: Write on a piece of paper the 3 most important things in your life, and "sacrifice" them to God by shredding them, as a reminder that nothing is more important in our lives than Jesus, and our obedience to Him.

Monday: Genesis 12:1-20

Think: Abram was a man of faith and obedient to God, yet still felt insecure when going to Egypt, relying on his own (dishonest) efforts to keep himself safe. What are you facing that tempts you to trust your own efforts more than Jesus?

Tuesday: Genesis 18:1-15

Consider: Sarah wasn't sure, but ask yourself the question in verse 14: "Is anything too hard for the LORD?" The answer is obvious – whatever you are facing!

Wednesday: Genesis 19:15 - 19:29

Reflect: Consider: Is there anything in your life that would attract God's judgement, and that you need to flee from? When you become aware of sin, do you immediately turn from it (repent) or do you hesitate, like Lot and his family?

Thursday: Genesis 21:1-21

Reflect: Verse 11 reveals Abraham's distress & God's response. When God speaks and gives us direction, it often changes the way we feel. How attentive are you to hear His voice? What could you do to hear Him more clearly?

Friday: Genesis 22:1 - 22:19

Sacrificial worship: Write on a piece of paper the 3 most important things in your life, and "sacrifice" them to God by shredding them, as a reminder that nothing is more important in our lives than Jesus, and our obedience to Him.

Monday: Genesis 12:1-20

Think: Abram was a man of faith and obedient to God, yet still felt insecure when going to Egypt, relying on his own (dishonest) efforts to keep himself safe. What are you facing that tempts you to trust your own efforts more than Jesus?

Tuesday: Genesis 18:1-15

Consider: Sarah wasn't sure, but ask yourself the question in verse 14: "Is anything too hard for the LORD?" The answer is obvious – whatever you are facing!

Wednesday: Genesis 19:15 - 19:29

Reflect: Consider: Is there anything in your life that would attract God's judgement, and that you need to flee from? When you become aware of sin, do you immediately turn from it (repent) or do you hesitate, like Lot and his family?

Thursday: Genesis 21:1-21

Reflect: Verse 11 reveals Abraham's distress & God's response. When God speaks and gives us direction, it often changes the way we feel. How attentive are you to hear His voice? What could you do to hear Him more clearly?

Friday: Genesis 22:1 - 22:19

Sacrificial worship: Write on a piece of paper the 3 most important things in your life, and "sacrifice" them to God by shredding them, as a reminder that nothing is more important in our lives than Jesus, and our obedience to Him.

Monday: Genesis 12:1-20

Think: Abram was a man of faith and obedient to God, yet still felt insecure when going to Egypt, relying on his own (dishonest) efforts to keep himself safe. What are you facing that tempts you to trust your own efforts more than Jesus?

Tuesday: Genesis 18:1-15

Consider: Sarah wasn't sure, but ask yourself the question in verse 14: "Is anything too hard for the LORD?" The answer is obvious – whatever you are facing!

Wednesday: Genesis 19:15 - 19:29

Reflect: Consider: Is there anything in your life that would attract God's judgement, and that you need to flee from? When you become aware of sin, do you immediately turn from it (repent) or do you hesitate, like Lot and his family?

Thursday: Genesis 21:1-21

Reflect: Verse 11 reveals Abraham's distress & God's response. When God speaks and gives us direction, it often changes the way we feel. How attentive are you to hear His voice? What could you do to hear Him more clearly?

Friday: Genesis 22:1 - 22:19

Sacrificial worship: Write on a piece of paper the 3 most important things in your life, and "sacrifice" them to God by shredding them, as a reminder that nothing is more important in our lives than Jesus, and our obedience to Him.

