

Monday: Genesis 24:1-31.

Think: What principles can you find in this passage about trusting God and how He guides us?

Tuesday: Genesis 25:19 - 25:34.

Consider: Godless people like Esau (see Heb 12:16) will always sacrifice future blessing in order to have immediate needs satisfied. Christians are instead called to live constantly aware of eternity. Are you living up to that calling?

Wednesday: Genesis 27:1 - 27:40.

Key Thought: The blessing may have been stolen, but the birthright was given away. Jacob was certainly a deceiver, but Esau fails to take any responsibility for his own actions. How good are you at this?

Thursday: Genesis 28:10 - 28:22.

Rededication: God renews the covenant originally made with Abraham and Isaac, and enters into a commitment with Jacob, despite his faults. What can you learn from Jacob's actions in verses 20-22?

Friday: Genesis 29:14 - 29:30.

Reminder: Jacob, the Deceiver, is deceived! Although he becomes an example of faith, Jacob sowed bad choices in his early years and reaped the consequences in family discord in later years. Make sure you sow well!

Monday: Genesis 24:1-31.

Think: What principles can you find in this passage about trusting God and how He guides us?

Tuesday: Genesis 25:19 - 25:34.

Consider: Godless people like Esau (see Heb 12:16) will always sacrifice future blessing in order to have immediate needs satisfied. Christians are instead called to live constantly aware of eternity. Are you living up to that calling?

Wednesday: Genesis 27:1 - 27:40.

Key Thought: The blessing may have been stolen, but the birthright was given away. Jacob was certainly a deceiver, but Esau fails to take any responsibility for his own actions. How good are you at this?

Thursday: Genesis 28:10 - 28:22.

Rededication: God renews the covenant originally made with Abraham and Isaac, and enters into a commitment with Jacob, despite his faults. What can you learn from Jacob's actions in verses 20-22?

Friday: Genesis 29:14 - 29:30.

Reminder: Jacob, the Deceiver, is deceived! Although he becomes an example of faith, Jacob sowed bad choices in his early years and reaped the consequences in family discord in later years. Make sure you sow well!

Monday: Genesis 24:1-31.

Think: What principles can you find in this passage about trusting God and how He guides us?

Tuesday: Genesis 25:19 - 25:34.

Consider: Godless people like Esau (see Heb 12:16) will always sacrifice future blessing in order to have immediate needs satisfied. Christians are instead called to live constantly aware of eternity. Are you living up to that calling?

Wednesday: Genesis 27:1 - 27:40.

Key Thought: The blessing may have been stolen, but the birthright was given away. Jacob was certainly a deceiver, but Esau fails to take any responsibility for his own actions. How good are you at this?

Thursday: Genesis 28:10 - 28:22.

Rededication: God renews the covenant originally made with Abraham and Isaac, and enters into a commitment with Jacob, despite his faults. What can you learn from Jacob's actions in verses 20-22?

Friday: Genesis 29:14 - 29:30.

Reminder: Jacob, the Deceiver, is deceived! Although he becomes an example of faith, Jacob sowed bad choices in his early years and reaped the consequences in family discord in later years. Make sure you sow well!

Monday: Genesis 24:1-31.

Think: What principles can you find in this passage about trusting God and how He guides us?

Tuesday: Genesis 25:19 - 25:34.

Consider: Godless people like Esau (see Heb 12:16) will always sacrifice future blessing in order to have immediate needs satisfied. Christians are instead called to live constantly aware of eternity. Are you living up to that calling?

Wednesday: Genesis 27:1 - 27:40.

Key Thought: The blessing may have been stolen, but the birthright was given away. Jacob was certainly a deceiver, but Esau fails to take any responsibility for his own actions. How good are you at this?

Thursday: Genesis 28:10 - 28:22.

Rededication: God renews the covenant originally made with Abraham and Isaac, and enters into a commitment with Jacob, despite his faults. What can you learn from Jacob's actions in verses 20-22?

Friday: Genesis 29:14 - 29:30.

Reminder: Jacob, the Deceiver, is deceived! Although he becomes an example of faith, Jacob sowed bad choices in his early years and reaped the consequences in family discord in later years. Make sure you sow well!

