

Monday: Exodus 1:8 – 2:10

Reflect: Throughout this passage Pharaoh is trying to thwart God's will and God thwarts his efforts! Can you see how God works today to bring man's efforts to oppose him, to nothing?

Tuesday: Exodus 3:1-15

Re-read verses 11 & 12. On our own we are insignificant but when God is with us we can change the world. Worship Him in anticipation of what he can do in you.

Wednesday: Exodus 7:1-13 & 11:1–10

Sometimes it's difficult to believe that people can't see the truth no matter what. Moses and Aaron kept being God's voice to Pharaoh despite rejection. Pray for perseverance in your witness to your non-Christian friends.

Thursday: Exodus 12

Consider: Passover marks a new start for the nation of Israel (v.2) but they had to eat ready to go (v.11). Is your faith the expectant kind that enables you to be ready for God to do new things in your life?

Friday: Exodus 13:17 – 14:31

Notice: How the Lord fights for his people all through the night with the cloud, the pillar of fire and finally the water. Reflect on verses 13 and 14 and apply Moses words to your own life.

Monday: Exodus 1:8 – 2:10

Reflect: Throughout this passage Pharaoh is trying to thwart God's will and God thwarts his efforts! Can you see how God works today to bring man's efforts to oppose him, to nothing?

Tuesday: Exodus 3:1-15.

Re-read verses 11 & 12. On our own we are insignificant but when God is with us we can change the world. Worship Him in anticipation of what he can do in you.

Wednesday: Exodus 7:1-13 & 11:1–10

Sometimes it's difficult to believe that people can't see the truth no matter what. Moses and Aaron kept being God's voice to Pharaoh despite rejection. Pray for perseverance in your witness to your non-Christian friends.

Thursday: Exodus 12

Consider: Passover marks a new start for the nation of Israel (v.2) but they had to eat ready to go (v.11). Is your faith the expectant kind that enables you to be ready for God to do new things in your life?

Friday: Exodus 13:17 – 14:31

Notice: How the Lord fights for his people all through the night with the cloud, the pillar of fire and finally the water. Reflect on verses 13 and 14 and apply Moses words to your own life.

Monday: Exodus 1:8 – 2:10

Reflect: Throughout this passage Pharaoh is trying to thwart God's will and God thwarts his efforts! Can you see how God works today to bring man's efforts to oppose him, to nothing?

Tuesday: Exodus 3:1-15

Re-read verses 11 & 12. On our own we are insignificant but when God is with us we can change the world. Worship Him in anticipation of what he can do in you.

Wednesday: Exodus 7:1-13 & 11:1–10

Sometimes it's difficult to believe that people can't see the truth no matter what. Moses and Aaron kept being God's voice to Pharaoh despite rejection. Pray for perseverance in your witness to your non-Christian friends.

Thursday: Exodus 12

Consider: Passover marks a new start for the nation of Israel (v.2) but they had to eat ready to go (v.11). Is your faith the expectant kind that enables you to be ready for God to do new things in your life?

Friday: Exodus 13:17 – 14:31

Notice: How the Lord fights for his people all through the night with the cloud, the pillar of fire and finally the water. Reflect on verses 13 and 14 and apply Moses words to your own life.

Monday: Exodus 1:8 – 2:10

Reflect: Throughout this passage Pharaoh is trying to thwart God's will and God thwarts his efforts! Can you see how God works today to bring man's efforts to oppose him, to nothing?

Tuesday: Exodus 3:1-15

Re-read verses 11 & 12. On our own we are insignificant but when God is with us we can change the world. Worship Him in anticipation of what he can do in you.

Wednesday: Exodus 7:1-13 & 11:1–10

Sometimes it's difficult to believe that people can't see the truth no matter what. Moses and Aaron kept being God's voice to Pharaoh despite rejection. Pray for perseverance in your witness to your non-Christian friends.

Thursday: Exodus 12

Consider: Passover marks a new start for the nation of Israel (v.2) but they had to eat ready to go (v.11). Is your faith the expectant kind that enables you to be ready for God to do new things in your life?

Friday: Exodus 13:17 – 14:31

Notice: How the Lord fights for his people all through the night with the cloud, the pillar of fire and finally the water. Reflect on verses 13 and 14 and apply Moses words to your own life.

