

Monday: Matthew 16:13 - 20. Consider: Learning who Jesus is from others is not the same as personal revelation from God. Jesus wanted people to have this personal revelation rather than misunderstanding his purpose because of their preconceived ideas of what the Messiah would do. (v20) Do you have pre-conceived ideas that stop you hearing God speak clearly?

Tuesday: Luke 9:28 - 36. Appreciation: Moses and Elijah represented the Old Testament Law and the Prophets. Notice what they spoke to Jesus about - his coming death in Jerusalem. Their salvation as well as ours depended upon the cross of Christ! Worship God and thank him for what Christ accomplished by His death.

Wednesday: Mark 9:14 - 27. Think: What can you learn about responding to Jesus from the reaction of the crowd in v15 and the boy's father in v24?

Thursday: Mark 9:33 - 41. Application: In what ways can you be the "servant of all" today?

Friday: John 9:1 - 43. Listen to God: Which verse or phrase speaks to you today? What is God saying to you and how should you respond?

Monday: Matthew 16:13 - 20. Consider: Learning who Jesus is from others is not the same as personal revelation from God. Jesus wanted people to have this personal revelation rather than misunderstanding his purpose because of their preconceived ideas of what the Messiah would do. (v20) Do you have pre-conceived ideas that stop you hearing God speak clearly?

Tuesday: Luke 9:28 - 36. Appreciation: Moses and Elijah represented the Old Testament Law and the Prophets. Notice what they spoke to Jesus about - his coming death in Jerusalem. Their salvation as well as ours depended upon the cross of Christ! Worship God and thank him for what Christ accomplished by His death.

Wednesday: Mark 9:14 - 27. Think: What can you learn about responding to Jesus from the reaction of the crowd in v15 and the boy's father in v24?

Thursday: Mark 9:33 - 41. Application: In what ways can you be the "servant of all" today?

Friday: John 9:1 - 43. Listen to God: Which verse or phrase speaks to you today? What is God saying to you and how should you respond?

Monday: Matthew 16:13 - 20. Consider: Learning who Jesus is from others is not the same as personal revelation from God. Jesus wanted people to have this personal revelation rather than misunderstanding his purpose because of their preconceived ideas of what the Messiah would do. (v20) Do you have pre-conceived ideas that stop you hearing God speak clearly?

Tuesday: Luke 9:28 - 36. Appreciation: Moses and Elijah represented the Old Testament Law and the Prophets. Notice what they spoke to Jesus about - his coming death in Jerusalem. Their salvation as well as ours depended upon the cross of Christ! Worship God and thank him for what Christ accomplished by His death.

Wednesday: Mark 9:14 - 27. Think: What can you learn about responding to Jesus from the reaction of the crowd in v15 and the boy's father in v24?

Thursday: Mark 9:33 - 41. Application: In what ways can you be the "servant of all" today?

Friday: John 9:1 - 43. Listen to God: Which verse or phrase speaks to you today? What is God saying to you and how should you respond?

Monday: Matthew 16:13 - 20. Consider: Learning who Jesus is from others is not the same as personal revelation from God. Jesus wanted people to have this personal revelation rather than misunderstanding his purpose because of their preconceived ideas of what the Messiah would do. (v20) Do you have pre-conceived ideas that stop you hearing God speak clearly?

Tuesday: Luke 9:28 - 36. Appreciation: Moses and Elijah represented the Old Testament Law and the Prophets. Notice what they spoke to Jesus about - his coming death in Jerusalem. Their salvation as well as ours depended upon the cross of Christ! Worship God and thank him for what Christ accomplished by His death.

Wednesday: Mark 9:14 - 27. Think: What can you learn about responding to Jesus from the reaction of the crowd in v15 and the boy's father in v24?

Thursday: Mark 9:33 - 41. Application: In what ways can you be the "servant of all" today?

Friday: John 9:1 - 43. Listen to God: Which verse or phrase speaks to you today? What is God saying to you and how should you respond?

