

Monday: 2 Sam 5:1 - 6:17. Think: In 2 Samuel 5:12 David acknowledged that his position and accomplishments were the Lord's doing and part of His plan for Israel. Do we recognise that where we are is where God has placed us and fulfil the reasons why He has placed us there?

Tuesday: 2 Sam 7:8-17. Worship: Centuries earlier God had already planned the Messianic line for Jesus. Praise Him that He has all our life planned out for us, even from before we were born. (see Ps 139: 15-16).

Wednesday: 2 Sam 11:1-27. Reflect: God entrusted David with Kingship and all that went with it. David's failure was an abuse of trust. Pray for yourself (and those with leadership responsibilities) to stay strong in difficult situations.

Thursday: 2 Sam 12:1-25 Consider: "You may be sure that your sin will find you out." (Numbers 32:23) It was up to a year later when Nathan confronted David (v15) and David probably thought he'd got away with it. But sin always has knock on effects and consequences even when we repent, and not just for the one who sins. As Easter approaches think about the impact of our sins upon Jesus.

Friday: 2 Sam 18:1-33. Appreciation: David as a father, continued to love Absalom, in spite of his rebellion against him. (v33) Thank God that He is an even better Father, and loves us unconditionally and eternally.

Monday: 2 Sam 5:1 - 6:17. Think: In 2 Samuel 5:12 David acknowledged that his position and accomplishments were the Lord's doing and part of His plan for Israel. Do we recognise that where we are is where God has placed us and fulfil the reasons why He has placed us there?

Tuesday: 2 Sam 7:8-17. Worship: Centuries earlier God had already planned the Messianic line for Jesus. Praise Him that He has all our life planned out for us, even from before we were born. (see Ps 139: 15-16).

Wednesday: 2 Sam 11:1-27. Reflect: God entrusted David with Kingship and all that went with it. David's failure was an abuse of trust. Pray for yourself (and those with leadership responsibilities) to stay strong in difficult situations.

Thursday: 2 Sam 12:1-25 Consider: "You may be sure that your sin will find you out." (Numbers 32:23) It was up to a year later when Nathan confronted David (v15) and David probably thought he'd got away with it. But sin always has knock on effects and consequences even when we repent, and not just for the one who sins. As Easter approaches think about the impact of our sins upon Jesus.

Friday: 2 Sam 18:1-33. Appreciation: David as a father, continued to love Absalom, in spite of his rebellion against him. (v33) Thank God that He is an even better Father, and loves us unconditionally and eternally.

Monday: 2 Sam 5:1 - 6:17. Think: In 2 Samuel 5:12 David acknowledged that his position and accomplishments were the Lord's doing and part of His plan for Israel. Do we recognise that where we are is where God has placed us and fulfil the reasons why He has placed us there?

Tuesday: 2 Sam 7:8-17. Worship: Centuries earlier God had already planned the Messianic line for Jesus. Praise Him that He has all our life planned out for us, even from before we were born. (see Ps 139: 15-16).

Wednesday: 2 Sam 11:1-27. Reflect: God entrusted David with Kingship and all that went with it. David's failure was an abuse of trust. Pray for yourself (and those with leadership responsibilities) to stay strong in difficult situations.

Thursday: 2 Sam 12:1-25 Consider: "You may be sure that your sin will find you out." (Numbers 32:23) It was up to a year later when Nathan confronted David (v15) and David probably thought he'd got away with it. But sin always has knock on effects and consequences even when we repent, and not just for the one who sins. As Easter approaches think about the impact of our sins upon Jesus.

Friday: 2 Sam 18:1-33. Appreciation: David as a father, continued to love Absalom, in spite of his rebellion against him. (v33) Thank God that He is an even better Father, and loves us unconditionally and eternally.

Monday: 2 Sam 5:1 - 6:17. Think: In 2 Samuel 5:12 David acknowledged that his position and accomplishments were the Lord's doing and part of His plan for Israel. Do we recognise that where we are is where God has placed us and fulfil the reasons why He has placed us there?

Tuesday: 2 Sam 7:8-17. Worship: Centuries earlier God had already planned the Messianic line for Jesus. Praise Him that He has all our life planned out for us, even from before we were born. (see Ps 139: 15-16).

Wednesday: 2 Sam 11:1-27. Reflect: God entrusted David with Kingship and all that went with it. David's failure was an abuse of trust. Pray for yourself (and those with leadership responsibilities) to stay strong in difficult situations.

Thursday: 2 Sam 12:1-25 Consider: "You may be sure that your sin will find you out." (Numbers 32:23) It was up to a year later when Nathan confronted David (v15) and David probably thought he'd got away with it. But sin always has knock on effects and consequences even when we repent, and not just for the one who sins. As Easter approaches think about the impact of our sins upon Jesus.

Friday: 2 Sam 18:1-33. Appreciation: David as a father, continued to love Absalom, in spite of his rebellion against him. (v33) Thank God that He is an even better Father, and loves us unconditionally and eternally.

