

Monday: Psalm 84. Key verse: v5. Do you view yourself as a stranger in this world, and a pilgrim on your way to Heaven? It has been said that “If your focus is on Heaven, earthly values will die of neglect.” Is this true of you?

Tuesday: Psalm 91. Consider v1: Dwelling “in the shelter of the Most High” is also a place of rest “in the shadow of the Almighty”. God’s personal presence, protection, provision and promises are experienced by the person who knows the secret of this place of shelter.

Wednesday: Psalm 100. Reflect: Having a relationship with God leads to wholehearted activity in worship: shout, serve, come, know, enter, give thanks, bless. We can come with confidence into His presence knowing we are His - He has made us and we belong to Him.

Thursday: Psalm 103. Think: This Psalm includes the constantly repeated phrase in the Old Testament about God: "he is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love". This is the picture of God as revealed in Jesus, who first came as a servant to save before coming as a King to judge.

Friday: Psalm 119:1-16; 105-112. List: Everything in these verses that teaches us something about the value of God’s word contained in the Bible. Thank God for such clear direction and revelation that gives us truth to live by.

Monday: Psalm 84. Key verse: v5. Do you view yourself as a stranger in this world, and a pilgrim on your way to Heaven? It has been said that “If your focus is on Heaven, earthly values will die of neglect.” Is this true of you?

Tuesday: Psalm 91. Consider v1: Dwelling “in the shelter of the Most High” is also a place of rest “in the shadow of the Almighty”. God’s personal presence, protection, provision and promises are experienced by the person who knows the secret of this place of shelter.

Wednesday: Psalm 100. Reflect: Having a relationship with God leads to wholehearted activity in worship: shout, serve, come, know, enter, give thanks, bless. We can come with confidence into His presence knowing we are His - He has made us and we belong to Him.

Thursday: Psalm 103. Think: This Psalm includes the constantly repeated phrase in the Old Testament about God: "he is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love". This is the picture of God as revealed in Jesus, who first came as a servant to save before coming as a King to judge.

Friday: Psalm 119:1-16; 105-112. List: Everything in these verses that teaches us something about the value of God’s word contained in the Bible. Thank God for such clear direction and revelation that gives us truth to live by.

Monday: Psalm 84. Key verse: v5. Do you view yourself as a stranger in this world, and a pilgrim on your way to Heaven? It has been said that “If your focus is on Heaven, earthly values will die of neglect.” Is this true of you?

Tuesday: Psalm 91. Consider v1: Dwelling “in the shelter of the Most High” is also a place of rest “in the shadow of the Almighty”. God’s personal presence, protection, provision and promises are experienced by the person who knows the secret of this place of shelter.

Wednesday: Psalm 100. Reflect: Having a relationship with God leads to wholehearted activity in worship: shout, serve, come, know, enter, give thanks, bless. We can come with confidence into His presence knowing we are His - He has made us and we belong to Him.

Thursday: Psalm 103. Think: This Psalm includes the constantly repeated phrase in the Old Testament about God: "he is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love". This is the picture of God as revealed in Jesus, who first came as a servant to save before coming as a King to judge.

Friday: Psalm 119:1-16; 105-112. List: Everything in these verses that teaches us something about the value of God’s word contained in the Bible. Thank God for such clear direction and revelation that gives us truth to live by.

Monday: Psalm 84. Key verse: v5. Do you view yourself as a stranger in this world, and a pilgrim on your way to Heaven? It has been said that “If your focus is on Heaven, earthly values will die of neglect.” Is this true of you?

Tuesday: Psalm 91. Consider v1: Dwelling “in the shelter of the Most High” is also a place of rest “in the shadow of the Almighty”. God’s personal presence, protection, provision and promises are experienced by the person who knows the secret of this place of shelter.

Wednesday: Psalm 100. Reflect: Having a relationship with God leads to wholehearted activity in worship: shout, serve, come, know, enter, give thanks, bless. We can come with confidence into His presence knowing we are His - He has made us and we belong to Him.

Thursday: Psalm 103. Think: This Psalm includes the constantly repeated phrase in the Old Testament about God: "he is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in love". This is the picture of God as revealed in Jesus, who first came as a servant to save before coming as a King to judge.

Friday: Psalm 119:1-16; 105-112. List: Everything in these verses that teaches us something about the value of God’s word contained in the Bible. Thank God for such clear direction and revelation that gives us truth to live by.

