

Monday: John 20:19-31. Take note of the emphasis on “believing” in verses 25, 27, 29, 30 & 31. What does this teach or imply about your faith in Christ to apply in your life today?

Tuesday: John 21:1-25. Consider: How has Jesus helped you face up to and recover from past failure? If Jesus asked you the question he asked Peter, three times, how would you feel and how would you answer Him?

Wednesday: Acts 1:1-11. Reflect: Have Jesus words in verse 8 been true in your experience? Are you a witness of what Jesus has done in your life, wherever you go? Are you living in the Holy Spirit’s power today? If not, why not?

Thursday: Proverbs 16:1-9. Think: This selection of inspired sayings gives us an insight into God’s guidance in our lives. Can you find 2 or 3 principles here to help you when you make plans and decisions?

Friday: Psalm 127:1-5. Key verse: v1. How do you demonstrate that you believe this verse, and have taken to heart this principle of trusting and relying on God to work in your life?

Monday: John 20:19-31. Take note of the emphasis on “believing” in verses 25, 27, 29, 30 & 31. What does this teach or imply about your faith in Christ to apply in your life today?

Tuesday: John 21:1-25. Consider: How has Jesus helped you face up to and recover from past failure? If Jesus asked you the question he asked Peter, three times, how would you feel and how would you answer Him?

Wednesday: Acts 1:1-11. Reflect: Have Jesus words in verse 8 been true in your experience? Are you a witness of what Jesus has done in your life, wherever you go? Are you living in the Holy Spirit’s power today? If not, why not?

Thursday: Proverbs 16:1-9. Think: This selection of inspired sayings gives us an insight into God’s guidance in our lives. Can you find 2 or 3 principles here to help you when you make plans and decisions?

Friday: Psalm 127:1-5. Key verse: v1. How do you demonstrate that you believe this verse, and have taken to heart this principle of trusting and relying on God to work in your life?

Monday: John 20:19-31. Take note of the emphasis on “believing” in verses 25, 27, 29, 30 & 31. What does this teach or imply about your faith in Christ to apply in your life today?

Tuesday: John 21:1-25. Consider: How has Jesus helped you face up to and recover from past failure? If Jesus asked you the question he asked Peter, three times, how would you feel and how would you answer Him?

Wednesday: Acts 1:1-11. Reflect: Have Jesus words in verse 8 been true in your experience? Are you a witness of what Jesus has done in your life, wherever you go? Are you living in the Holy Spirit’s power today? If not, why not?

Thursday: Proverbs 16:1-9. Think: This selection of inspired sayings gives us an insight into God’s guidance in our lives. Can you find 2 or 3 principles here to help you when you make plans and decisions?

Friday: Psalm 127:1-5. Key verse: v1. How do you demonstrate that you believe this verse, and have taken to heart this principle of trusting and relying on God to work in your life?

Monday: John 20:19-31. Take note of the emphasis on “believing” in verses 25, 27, 29, 30 & 31. What does this teach or imply about your faith in Christ to apply in your life today?

Tuesday: John 21:1-25. Consider: How has Jesus helped you face up to and recover from past failure? If Jesus asked you the question he asked Peter, three times, how would you feel and how would you answer Him?

Wednesday: Acts 1:1-11. Reflect: Have Jesus words in verse 8 been true in your experience? Are you a witness of what Jesus has done in your life, wherever you go? Are you living in the Holy Spirit’s power today? If not, why not?

Thursday: Proverbs 16:1-9. Think: This selection of inspired sayings gives us an insight into God’s guidance in our lives. Can you find 2 or 3 principles here to help you when you make plans and decisions?

Friday: Psalm 127:1-5. Key verse: v1. How do you demonstrate that you believe this verse, and have taken to heart this principle of trusting and relying on God to work in your life?

