

Monday: Hosea 14:1-9. Reflect: v9. Perseverance is the mark of mature Christians. They continue in God's ways while others stumble and fall. Growing disciples understand this, even if they struggle to maintain a consistency in their spiritual life.

Tuesday: Micah 6:1-16. Key verse: v8. There are three good requirements that God expects of us as disciples of Jesus, mentioned in this verse. List them and assess yourself on these criteria. How are you progressing in the faith?

Wednesday: 2 Kings 17:1-20. Consider: v15. God loves people regardless, but who or what we worship determines our spiritual value to Him, according to this verse. Take time today to readjust your focus away from thanking God for the blessings He gives and instead to Jesus Himself.

Thursday: 2 Kings 19:20-36. Thanksgiving: Sennacherib destroyed Israel and almost destroyed Judah also. In answer to His prayer, God sends Isaiah to encourage Hezekiah and prophecy Assyria's destruction. In the battles you face, thank God for those He has placed in your life to encourage your perseverance.

Friday: Psalm 150:1-6. Praise: Verse 2 of this Psalm encourages us to praise God for two aspects of His character. The other verses tell us how, where and who should praise God. Put it into practice today for a few minutes!

Monday: Hosea 14:1-9. Reflect: v9. Perseverance is the mark of mature Christians. They continue in God's ways while others stumble and fall. Growing disciples understand this, even if they struggle to maintain a consistency in their spiritual life.

Tuesday: Micah 6:1-16. Key verse: v8. There are three good requirements that God expects of us as disciples of Jesus, mentioned in this verse. List them and assess yourself on these criteria. How are you progressing in the faith?

Wednesday: 2 Kings 17:1-20. Consider: v15. God loves people regardless, but who or what we worship determines our spiritual value to Him, according to this verse. Take time today to readjust your focus away from thanking God for the blessings He gives and instead to Jesus Himself.

Thursday: 2 Kings 19:20-36. Thanksgiving: Sennacherib destroyed Israel and almost destroyed Judah also. In answer to His prayer, God sends Isaiah to encourage Hezekiah and prophecy Assyria's destruction. In the battles you face, thank God for those He has placed in your life to encourage your perseverance.

Friday: Psalm 150:1-6. Praise: Verse 2 of this Psalm encourages us to praise God for two aspects of His character. The other verses tell us how, where and who should praise God. Put it into practice today for a few minutes!

Monday: Hosea 14:1-9. Reflect: v9. Perseverance is the mark of mature Christians. They continue in God's ways while others stumble and fall. Growing disciples understand this, even if they struggle to maintain a consistency in their spiritual life.

Tuesday: Micah 6:1-16. Key verse: v8. There are three good requirements that God expects of us as disciples of Jesus, mentioned in this verse. List them and assess yourself on these criteria. How are you progressing in the faith?

Wednesday: 2 Kings 17:1-20. Consider: v15. God loves people regardless, but who or what we worship determines our spiritual value to Him, according to this verse. Take time today to readjust your focus away from thanking God for the blessings He gives and instead to Jesus Himself.

Thursday: 2 Kings 19:20-36. Thanksgiving: Sennacherib destroyed Israel and almost destroyed Judah also. In answer to His prayer, God sends Isaiah to encourage Hezekiah and prophecy Assyria's destruction. In the battles you face, thank God for those He has placed in your life to encourage your perseverance.

Friday: Psalm 150:1-6. Praise: Verse 2 of this Psalm encourages us to praise God for two aspects of His character. The other verses tell us how, where and who should praise God. Put it into practice today for a few minutes!

Monday: Hosea 14:1-9. Reflect: v9. Perseverance is the mark of mature Christians. They continue in God's ways while others stumble and fall. Growing disciples understand this, even if they struggle to maintain a consistency in their spiritual life.

Tuesday: Micah 6:1-16. Key verse: v8. There are three good requirements that God expects of us as disciples of Jesus, mentioned in this verse. List them and assess yourself on these criteria. How are you progressing in the faith?

Wednesday: 2 Kings 17:1-20. Consider: v15. God loves people regardless, but who or what we worship determines our spiritual value to Him, according to this verse. Take time today to readjust your focus away from thanking God for the blessings He gives and instead to Jesus Himself.

Thursday: 2 Kings 19:20-36. Thanksgiving: Sennacherib destroyed Israel and almost destroyed Judah also. In answer to His prayer, God sends Isaiah to encourage Hezekiah and prophecy Assyria's destruction. In the battles you face, thank God for those He has placed in your life to encourage your perseverance.

Friday: Psalm 150:1-6. Praise: Verse 2 of this Psalm encourages us to praise God for two aspects of His character. The other verses tell us how, where and who should praise God. Put it into practice today for a few minutes!

