

Monday: Isaiah 6:1-13. Challenge: Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" What has God been asking you to do lately and how have you responded to His calling?

Tuesday: Isaiah 40:9-31. Reflect: Isaiah 40:29-31 describes a spiritual weariness which we sometimes feel in our own lives. What encouragement and direction do we get as we read these words?

Wednesday: Isaiah 43:1-13. Encouragement: No matter what we are going through today or may face in the future, we know that we do not have to fear for God is with us. Take hold of these words and allow them to sink into your heart.

Thursday: Isaiah 53:1-12. Focus: As we focus on how Jesus suffered for us in order to reconcile us with God, let us give Him praise and thanks for his death on the cross that has given us life.

Friday: Zephaniah 1:1-18. Reminder: How close does Zephaniah say the people are to "the great day of the Lord"? In light of his statement, how much of a priority are we giving to tell others about the grace and love of Jesus?

Monday: Isaiah 6:1-13. Challenge: Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" What has God been asking you to do lately and how have you responded to His calling?

Tuesday: Isaiah 40:9-31. Reflect: Isaiah 40:29-31 describes a spiritual weariness which we sometimes feel in our own lives. What encouragement and direction do we get as we read these words?

Wednesday: Isaiah 43:1-13. Encouragement: No matter what we are going through today or may face in the future, we know that we do not have to fear for God is with us. Take hold of these words and allow them to sink into your heart.

Thursday: Isaiah 53:1-12. Focus: As we focus on how Jesus suffered for us in order to reconcile us with God, let us give Him praise and thanks for his death on the cross that has given us life.

Friday: Zephaniah 1:1-18. Reminder: How close does Zephaniah say the people are to "the great day of the Lord"? In light of his statement, how much of a priority are we giving to tell others about the grace and love of Jesus?

Monday: Isaiah 6:1-13. Challenge: Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" What has God been asking you to do lately and how have you responded to His calling?

Tuesday: Isaiah 40:9-31. Reflect: Isaiah 40:29-31 describes a spiritual weariness which we sometimes feel in our own lives. What encouragement and direction do we get as we read these words?

Wednesday: Isaiah 43:1-13. Encouragement: No matter what we are going through today or may face in the future, we know that we do not have to fear for God is with us. Take hold of these words and allow them to sink into your heart.

Thursday: Isaiah 53:1-12. Focus: As we focus on how Jesus suffered for us in order to reconcile us with God, let us give Him praise and thanks for his death on the cross that has given us life.

Friday: Zephaniah 1:1-18. Reminder: How close does Zephaniah say the people are to "the great day of the Lord"? In light of his statement, how much of a priority are we giving to tell others about the grace and love of Jesus?

Monday: Isaiah 6:1-13. Challenge: Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" What has God been asking you to do lately and how have you responded to His calling?

Tuesday: Isaiah 40:9-31. Reflect: Isaiah 40:29-31 describes a spiritual weariness which we sometimes feel in our own lives. What encouragement and direction do we get as we read these words?

Wednesday: Isaiah 43:1-13. Encouragement: No matter what we are going through today or may face in the future, we know that we do not have to fear for God is with us. Take hold of these words and allow them to sink into your heart.

Thursday: Isaiah 53:1-12. Focus: As we focus on how Jesus suffered for us in order to reconcile us with God, let us give Him praise and thanks for his death on the cross that has given us life.

Friday: Zephaniah 1:1-18. Reminder: How close does Zephaniah say the people are to "the great day of the Lord"? In light of his statement, how much of a priority are we giving to tell others about the grace and love of Jesus?

