

Monday: Acts 15:36-16:10. Focus: Paul and Barnabas strongly disagree over their approach to mission and separate. Disagreements with other disciples will sometimes happen, but always remember who the real enemy is.

Tuesday: Acts 16:16-40. Choose: Our attitude to our problems is often more of a problem than the problem itself! Paul's response to a crisis is seen in v25. Choose to maintain a God-honouring attitude to whatever problem you are facing.

Wednesday: Acts 17:16-34. Think: Paul response to idol worship challenges us to find an effective way to communicate Christ to our friends and culture. How can you follow his example today?

Thursday: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-10. Consider: Despite "severe suffering" this church modelled faith, joy and witness for Christ. Have put a limit on how much you are willing to suffer as a follower of Jesus, by your lack in these areas?

1 Thessalonians 4:13-5:11. Reflect: In the light of the promised return of Jesus suddenly and soon for all believers, whether alive or already dead how should we live? The answer is found in 1 Thess 5:6 as we look forward to that amazing moment.

Monday: Acts 15:36-16:10. Focus: Paul and Barnabas strongly disagree over their approach to mission and separate. Disagreements with other disciples will sometimes happen, but always remember who the real enemy is.

Tuesday: Acts 16:16-40. Choose: Our attitude to our problems is often more of a problem than the problem itself! Paul's response to a crisis is seen in v25. Choose to maintain a God-honouring attitude to whatever problem you are facing.

Wednesday: Acts 17:16-34. Think: Paul response to idol worship challenges us to find an effective way to communicate Christ to our friends and culture. How can you follow his example today?

Thursday: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-10. Consider: Despite "severe suffering" this church modelled faith, joy and witness for Christ. Have put a limit on how much you are willing to suffer as a follower of Jesus, by your lack in these areas?

1 Thessalonians 4:13-5:11. Reflect: In the light of the promised return of Jesus suddenly and soon for all believers, whether alive or already dead how should we live? The answer is found in 1 Thess 5:6 as we look forward to that amazing moment.

Monday: Acts 15:36-16:10. Focus: Paul and Barnabas strongly disagree over their approach to mission and separate. Disagreements with other disciples will sometimes happen, but always remember who the real enemy is.

Tuesday: Acts 16:16-40. Choose: Our attitude to our problems is often more of a problem than the problem itself! Paul's response to a crisis is seen in v25. Choose to maintain a God-honouring attitude to whatever problem you are facing.

Wednesday: Acts 17:16-34. Think: Paul response to idol worship challenges us to find an effective way to communicate Christ to our friends and culture. How can you follow his example today?

Thursday: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-10. Consider: Despite "severe suffering" this church modelled faith, joy and witness for Christ. Have put a limit on how much you are willing to suffer as a follower of Jesus, by your lack in these areas?

1 Thessalonians 4:13-5:11. Reflect: In the light of the promised return of Jesus suddenly and soon for all believers, whether alive or already dead how should we live? The answer is found in 1 Thess 5:6 as we look forward to that amazing moment.

Monday: Acts 15:36-16:10. Focus: Paul and Barnabas strongly disagree over their approach to mission and separate. Disagreements with other disciples will sometimes happen, but always remember who the real enemy is.

Tuesday: Acts 16:16-40. Choose: Our attitude to our problems is often more of a problem than the problem itself! Paul's response to a crisis is seen in v25. Choose to maintain a God-honouring attitude to whatever problem you are facing.

Wednesday: Acts 17:16-34. Think: Paul response to idol worship challenges us to find an effective way to communicate Christ to our friends and culture. How can you follow his example today?

Thursday: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-10. Consider: Despite "severe suffering" this church modelled faith, joy and witness for Christ. Have put a limit on how much you are willing to suffer as a follower of Jesus, by your lack in these areas?

1 Thessalonians 4:13-5:11. Reflect: In the light of the promised return of Jesus suddenly and soon for all believers, whether alive or already dead how should we live? The answer is found in 1 Thess 5:6 as we look forward to that amazing moment.

