

Monday: Jeremiah 1:4-19. Be Brave: God chose Jeremiah before birth and in his teens told him what He expected. Jeremiah thought he was too young, but trusted God to tell him what to say and keep him safe. Do you have the courage to obey God?

Tuesday: Jeremiah 29:1-14. Consider: Verses 11-14 as Jeremiah writes to the Jews in captivity to settle in for a long stay. But through it all God had plans for them. Can you trust what God says in these verses?

Wednesday: Jeremiah 31:27-34. Reflect: God's promise of a new agreement (covenant) with mankind was fulfilled at Calvary. Is all that he promised in these verses your personal experience?

Thursday: Jeremiah 38:1-20. Apply: Jeremiah is regarded as a traitor and put in a pit to die. He is rescued, but the king still refuses to follow his advice. It is not enough to know the will of God, one must also do it.

Friday: Song of Songs 8:1-14. Think: In this eastern love story between a man and a woman, there are spiritual truths that apply to our relationship with Jesus. What do verses 6 & 7 reveal about Christ's love for you?

Monday: Jeremiah 1:4-19. Be Brave: God chose Jeremiah before birth and in his teens told him what He expected. Jeremiah thought he was too young, but trusted God to tell him what to say and keep him safe. Do you have the courage to obey God?

Tuesday: Jeremiah 29:1-14. Consider: Verses 11-14 as Jeremiah writes to the Jews in captivity to settle in for a long stay. But through it all God had plans for them. Can you trust what God says in these verses?

Wednesday: Jeremiah 31:27-34. Reflect: God's promise of a new agreement (covenant) with mankind was fulfilled at Calvary. Is all that he promised in these verses your personal experience?

Thursday: Jeremiah 38:1-20. Apply: Jeremiah is regarded as a traitor and put in a pit to die. He is rescued, but the king still refuses to follow his advice. It is not enough to know the will of God, one must also do it.

Friday: Song of Songs 8:1-14. Think: In this eastern love story between a man and a woman, there are spiritual truths that apply to our relationship with Jesus. What do verses 6 & 7 reveal about Christ's love for you?

Monday: Jeremiah 1:4-19. Be Brave: God chose Jeremiah before birth and in his teens told him what He expected. Jeremiah thought he was too young, but trusted God to tell him what to say and keep him safe. Do you have the courage to obey God?

Tuesday: Jeremiah 29:1-14. Consider: Verses 11-14 as Jeremiah writes to the Jews in captivity to settle in for a long stay. But through it all God had plans for them. Can you trust what God says in these verses?

Wednesday: Jeremiah 31:27-34. Reflect: God's promise of a new agreement (covenant) with mankind was fulfilled at Calvary. Is all that he promised in these verses your personal experience?

Thursday: Jeremiah 38:1-20. Apply: Jeremiah is regarded as a traitor and put in a pit to die. He is rescued, but the king still refuses to follow his advice. It is not enough to know the will of God, one must also do it.

Friday: Song of Songs 8:1-14. Think: In this eastern love story between a man and a woman, there are spiritual truths that apply to our relationship with Jesus. What do verses 6 & 7 reveal about Christ's love for you?

Monday: Jeremiah 1:4-19. Be Brave: God chose Jeremiah before birth and in his teens told him what He expected. Jeremiah thought he was too young, but trusted God to tell him what to say and keep him safe. Do you have the courage to obey God?

Tuesday: Jeremiah 29:1-14. Consider: Verses 11-14 as Jeremiah writes to the Jews in captivity to settle in for a long stay. But through it all God had plans for them. Can you trust what God says in these verses?

Wednesday: Jeremiah 31:27-34. Reflect: God's promise of a new agreement (covenant) with mankind was fulfilled at Calvary. Is all that he promised in these verses your personal experience?

Thursday: Jeremiah 38:1-20. Apply: Jeremiah is regarded as a traitor and put in a pit to die. He is rescued, but the king still refuses to follow his advice. It is not enough to know the will of God, one must also do it.

Friday: Song of Songs 8:1-14. Think: In this eastern love story between a man and a woman, there are spiritual truths that apply to our relationship with Jesus. What do verses 6 & 7 reveal about Christ's love for you?

