

Monday: Ezekiel 1:1-28. Think: Here in this opening chapter, God clearly captures Ezekiel's attention. What distracts you most in your walk with God and what does He have to do to get your attention?

Tuesday: Ezekiel 37:1-14. Reflect: If you could describe your own spiritual life in terms of this story, are you in the valley of dry bones, starting to hear the rattling of bones coming together or are you alive and ready for battle?

Wednesday: Esther 2:5-18. Ponder: As Esther was made queen, little did she know that God would use her to save the Jews. Why do you think you are where you are today 'for such a time as this'? Ask God to use you where he has placed you.

Thursday: Esther 3:12 - 5:8. Recall: On hearing the news that the Jews were to be destroyed, Esther requested that 'all fast' so that their focus and attention was given over to God to give clear guidance. Is there something in your life where fasting & prayer might be in order?

Friday: Esther 7:1-10. Trust: Esther trusted God through a very difficult situation. When everything was stacked up against her, what Haman intended for evil, God turned around for good. Read Proverbs 3:5 & 6.

Monday: Ezekiel 1:1-28. Think: Here in this opening chapter, God clearly captures Ezekiel's attention. What distracts you most in your walk with God and what does He have to do to get your attention?

Tuesday: Ezekiel 37:1-14. Reflect: If you could describe your own spiritual life in terms of this story, are you in the valley of dry bones, starting to hear the rattling of bones coming together or are you alive and ready for battle?

Wednesday: Esther 2:5-18. Ponder: As Esther was made queen, little did she know that God would use her to save the Jews. Why do you think you are where you are today 'for such a time as this'? Ask God to use you where he has placed you.

Thursday: Esther 3:12 - 5:8. Recall: On hearing the news that the Jews were to be destroyed, Esther requested that 'all fast' so that their focus and attention was given over to God to give clear guidance. Is there something in your life where fasting & prayer might be in order?

Friday: Esther 7:1-10. Trust: Esther trusted God through a very difficult situation. When everything was stacked up against her, what Haman intended for evil, God turned around for good. Read Proverbs 3:5 & 6.

Monday: Ezekiel 1:1-28. Think: Here in this opening chapter, God clearly captures Ezekiel's attention. What distracts you most in your walk with God and what does He have to do to get your attention?

Tuesday: Ezekiel 37:1-14. Reflect: If you could describe your own spiritual life in terms of this story, are you in the valley of dry bones, starting to hear the rattling of bones coming together or are you alive and ready for battle?

Wednesday: Esther 2:5-18. Ponder: As Esther was made queen, little did she know that God would use her to save the Jews. Why do you think you are where you are today 'for such a time as this'? Ask God to use you where he has placed you.

Thursday: Esther 3:12 - 5:8. Recall: On hearing the news that the Jews were to be destroyed, Esther requested that 'all fast' so that their focus and attention was given over to God to give clear guidance. Is there something in your life where fasting & prayer might be in order?

Friday: Esther 7:1-10. Trust: Esther trusted God through a very difficult situation. When everything was stacked up against her, what Haman intended for evil, God turned around for good. Read Proverbs 3:5 & 6.

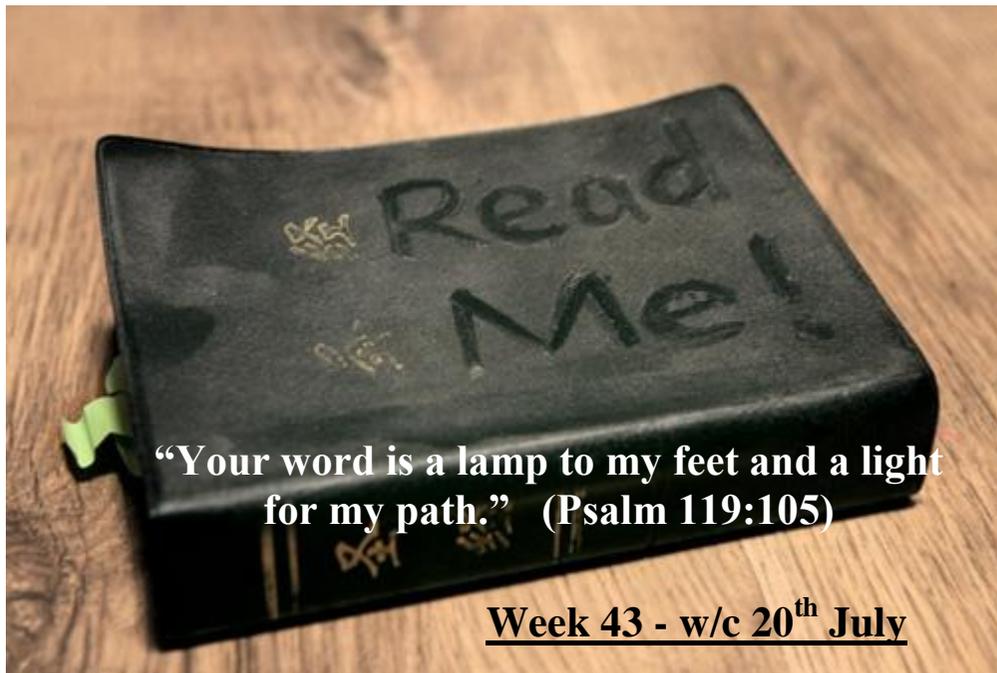

Monday: Ezekiel 1:1-28. Think: Here in this opening chapter, God clearly captures Ezekiel's attention. What distracts you most in your walk with God and what does He have to do to get your attention?

Tuesday: Ezekiel 37:1-14. Reflect: If you could describe your own spiritual life in terms of this story, are you in the valley of dry bones, starting to hear the rattling of bones coming together or are you alive and ready for battle?

Wednesday: Esther 2:5-18. Ponder: As Esther was made queen, little did she know that God would use her to save the Jews. Why do you think you are where you are today 'for such a time as this'? Ask God to use you where he has placed you.

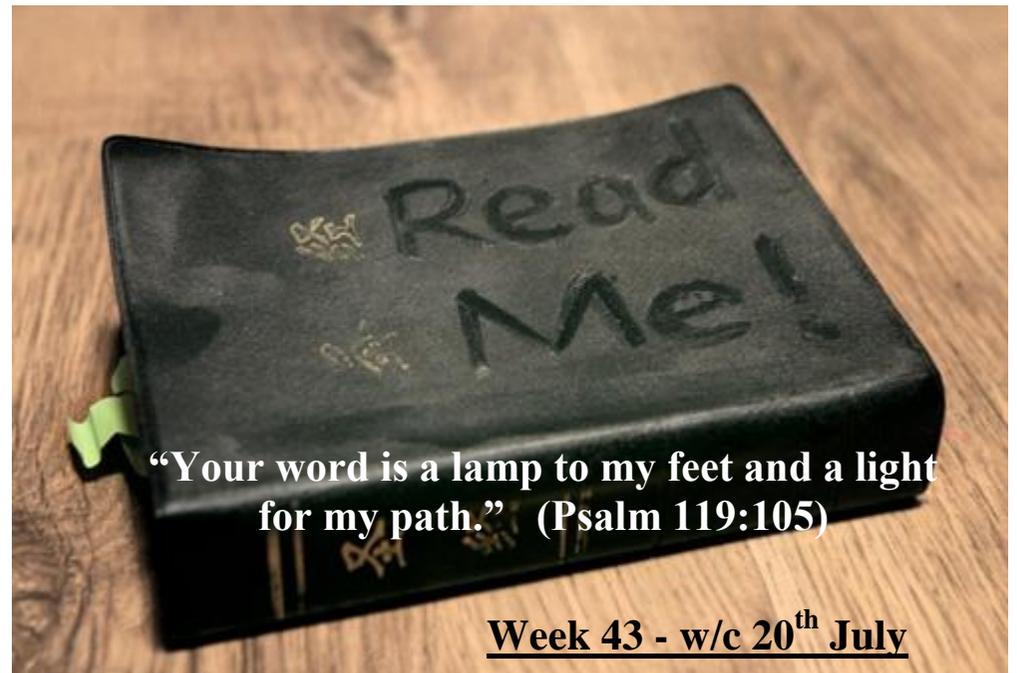

Thursday: Esther 3:12 - 5:8. Recall: On hearing the news that the Jews were to be destroyed, Esther requested that 'all fast' so that their focus and attention was given over to God to give clear guidance. Is there something in your life where fasting & prayer might be in order?

Friday: Esther 7:1-10. Trust: Esther trusted God through a very difficult situation. When everything was stacked up against her, what Haman intended for evil, God turned around for good. Read Proverbs 3:5 & 6.

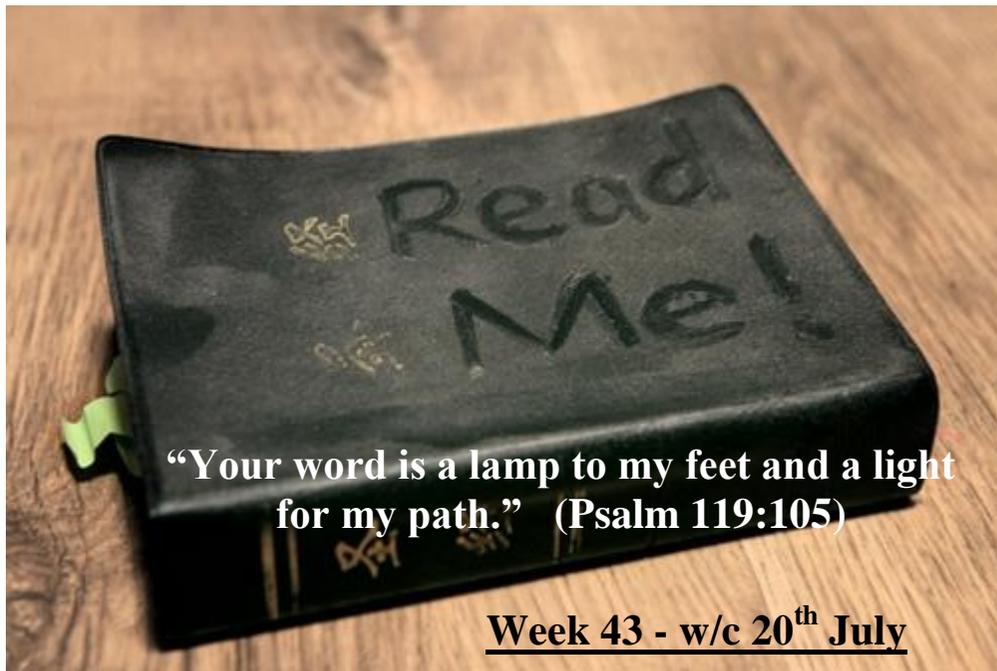

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” (Psalm 119:105)

Week 43 - w/c 20th July

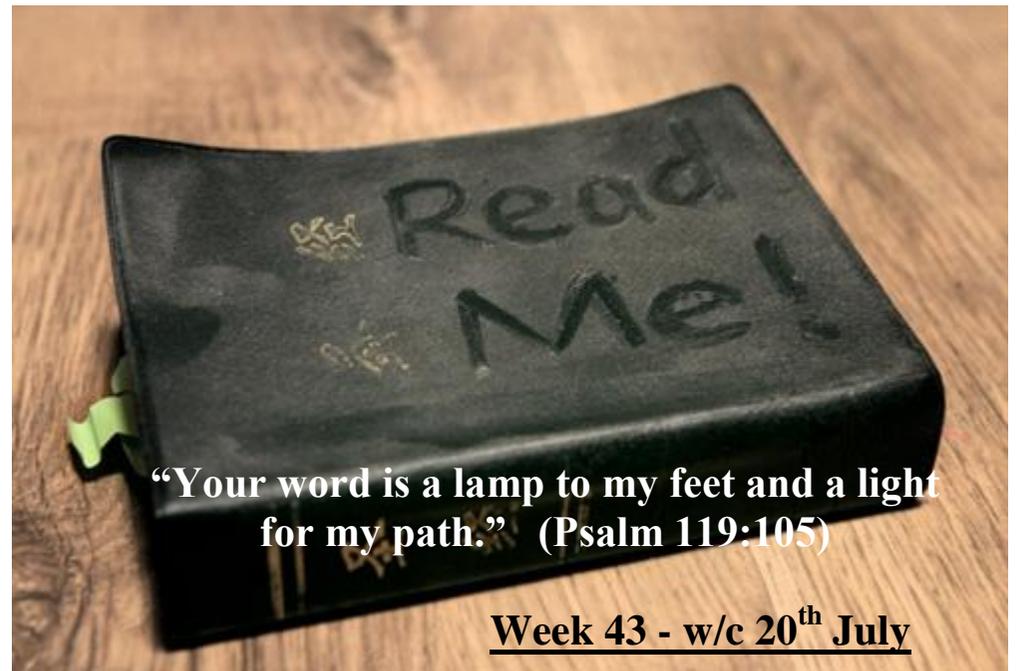

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” (Psalm 119:105)

Week 43 - w/c 20th July

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” (Psalm 119:105)

Week 43 - w/c 20th July

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” (Psalm 119:105)

Week 43 - w/c 20th July