

Monday: Acts 19:1-20. Reflect: on v15. Paul was known to the demons because his sharing of the gospel was so damaging to the Devil's activity. Would you be a threat to Satan's attempts to enlarge his kingdom?

Tuesday: Acts 20:13-38. Consider: v24. Paul is very clear on the task God called him to do and is very committed to it. How do you relate to this? Are you as clear on what God has called you to? Pray that you will share his attitude.

Wednesday: Acts 21:27-36. Pray: for Christians who are being persecuted around the world, just as Paul was. North Korea, Somalia, Iraq, Syria and Afghanistan are currently at the top of the list of places where it is hardest to live as a Christian.

Thursday: Acts 26:1-32. Think: In v25, Paul is clear that the Christian message is both true and rational, when others accused him of being mad. Do you have the same clarity and understanding of the Bible's teaching?

Friday: Acts 28:11-31. Focus: on the soldier who was guarding Paul in verse 16. He must have been the most evangelised man in Rome! If somebody was constantly with you, what would they see as being the main priority in your life?

Monday: Acts 19:1-20. Reflect: on v15. Paul was known to the demons because his sharing of the gospel was so damaging to the Devil's activity. Would you be a threat to Satan's attempts to enlarge his kingdom?

Tuesday: Acts 20:13-38. Consider: v24. Paul is very clear on the task God called him to do and is very committed to it. How do you relate to this? Are you as clear on what God has called you to? Pray that you will share his attitude.

Wednesday: Acts 21:27-36. Pray: for Christians who are being persecuted around the world, just as Paul was. North Korea, Somalia, Iraq, Syria and Afghanistan are currently at the top of the list of places where it is hardest to live as a Christian.

Thursday: Acts 26:1-32. Think: In v25, Paul is clear that the Christian message is both true and rational, when others accused him of being mad. Do you have the same clarity and understanding of the Bible's teaching?

Friday: Acts 28:11-31. Focus: on the soldier who was guarding Paul in verse 16. He must have been the most evangelised man in Rome! If somebody was constantly with you, what would they see as being the main priority in your life?

Monday: Acts 19:1-20. Reflect: on v15. Paul was known to the demons because his sharing of the gospel was so damaging to the Devil's activity. Would you be a threat to Satan's attempts to enlarge his kingdom?

Tuesday: Acts 20:13-38. Consider: v24. Paul is very clear on the task God called him to do and is very committed to it. How do you relate to this? Are you as clear on what God has called you to? Pray that you will share his attitude.

Wednesday: Acts 21:27-36. Pray: for Christians who are being persecuted around the world, just as Paul was. North Korea, Somalia, Iraq, Syria and Afghanistan are currently at the top of the list of places where it is hardest to live as a Christian.

Thursday: Acts 26:1-32. Think: In v25, Paul is clear that the Christian message is both true and rational, when others accused him of being mad. Do you have the same clarity and understanding of the Bible's teaching?

Friday: Acts 28:11-31. Focus: on the soldier who was guarding Paul in verse 16. He must have been the most evangelised man in Rome! If somebody was constantly with you, what would they see as being the main priority in your life?

Monday: Acts 19:1-20. Reflect: on v15. Paul was known to the demons because his sharing of the gospel was so damaging to the Devil's activity. Would you be a threat to Satan's attempts to enlarge his kingdom?

Tuesday: Acts 20:13-38. Consider: v24. Paul is very clear on the task God called him to do and is very committed to it. How do you relate to this? Are you as clear on what God has called you to? Pray that you will share his attitude.

Wednesday: Acts 21:27-36. Pray: for Christians who are being persecuted around the world, just as Paul was. North Korea, Somalia, Iraq, Syria and Afghanistan are currently at the top of the list of places where it is hardest to live as a Christian.

Thursday: Acts 26:1-32. Think: In v25, Paul is clear that the Christian message is both true and rational, when others accused him of being mad. Do you have the same clarity and understanding of the Bible's teaching?

Friday: Acts 28:11-31. Focus: on the soldier who was guarding Paul in verse 16. He must have been the most evangelised man in Rome! If somebody was constantly with you, what would they see as being the main priority in your life?

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” (Psalm 119:105)

Week 44 - w/c 27th July

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” (Psalm 119:105)

Week 44 - w/c 27th July

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” (Psalm 119:105)

Week 44 - w/c 27th July

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” (Psalm 119:105)

Week 44 - w/c 27th July