

Monday: Daniel 2:1-45. Thought: As Daniel was trying to establish an answer to Nebuchadnezzar's request, what can we learn from his approach when we are unsure of what to do next (v 14-23)?

Tuesday: Daniel 3:1-18. Challenge: What would you have done in Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego's shoes (v15)? Knowing that God is able to save and rescue you from all that you face, ask God to help you continue to stand firm and serve Him wholeheartedly.

Wednesday: Daniel 6:1-23. Reflect: Daniel did not allow the issues of the day to change what he did on a daily basis before God. What do you need to get back to doing, 'just as you did before'?

Thursday: Ecclesiastes 3:1-15. Think: God looks at time (3:14-15) completely differently from man (3:1-9). What is the difference between the way God and man look at time?

Friday: Ecclesiastes 12:1-14. Finally: The writer summarises what he has found to be the secret of fulfilment and true wisdom. What does he say it is (v13-14)?

Monday: Daniel 2:1-45. Thought: As Daniel was trying to establish an answer to Nebuchadnezzar's request, what can we learn from his approach when we are unsure of what to do next (v 14-23)?

Tuesday: Daniel 3:1-18. Challenge: What would you have done in Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego's shoes (v15)? Knowing that God is able to save and rescue you from all that you face, ask God to help you continue to stand firm and serve Him wholeheartedly.

Wednesday: Daniel 6:1-23. Reflect: Daniel did not allow the issues of the day to change what he did on a daily basis before God. What do you need to get back to doing, 'just as you did before'?

Thursday: Ecclesiastes 3:1-15. Think: God looks at time (3:14-15) completely differently from man (3:1-9). What is the difference between the way God and man look at time?

Friday: Ecclesiastes 12:1-14. Finally: The writer summarises what he has found to be the secret of fulfilment and true wisdom. What does he say it is (v13-14)?

Monday: Daniel 2:1-45. Thought: As Daniel was trying to establish an answer to Nebuchadnezzar's request, what can we learn from his approach when we are unsure of what to do next (v 14-23)?

Tuesday: Daniel 3:1-18. Challenge: What would you have done in Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego's shoes (v15)? Knowing that God is able to save and rescue you from all that you face, ask God to help you continue to stand firm and serve Him wholeheartedly.

Wednesday: Daniel 6:1-23. Reflect: Daniel did not allow the issues of the day to change what he did on a daily basis before God. What do you need to get back to doing, 'just as you did before'?

Thursday: Ecclesiastes 3:1-15. Think: God looks at time (3:14-15) completely differently from man (3:1-9). What is the difference between the way God and man look at time?

Friday: Ecclesiastes 12:1-14. Finally: The writer summarises what he has found to be the secret of fulfilment and true wisdom. What does he say it is (v13-14)?

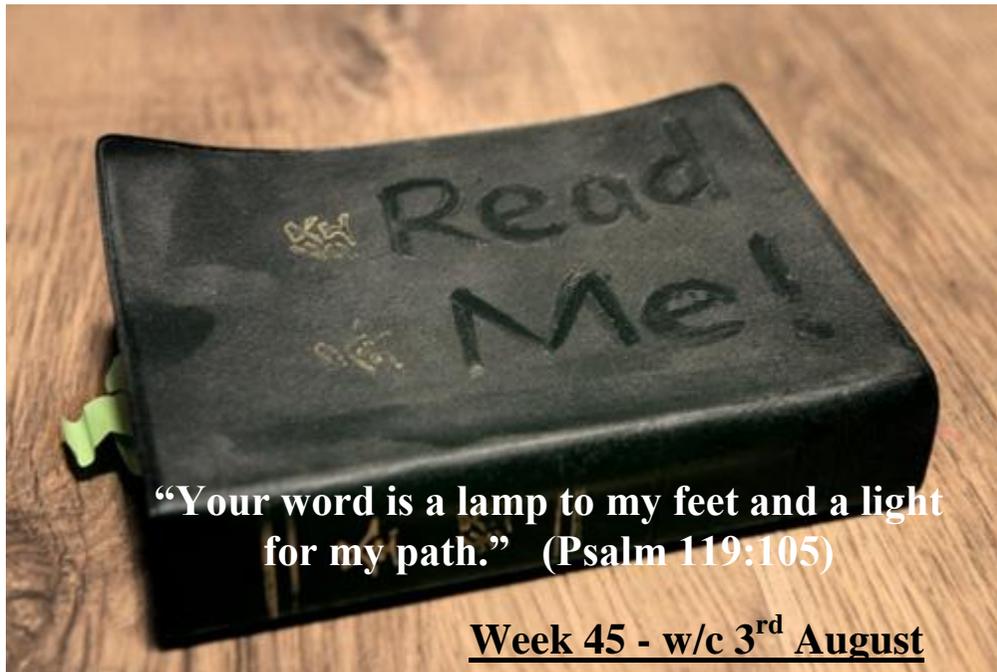

Monday: Daniel 2:1-45. Thought: As Daniel was trying to establish an answer to Nebuchadnezzar's request, what can we learn from his approach when we are unsure of what to do next (v 14-23)?

Tuesday: Daniel 3:1-18. Challenge: What would you have done in Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego's shoes (v15)? Knowing that God is able to save and rescue you from all that you face, ask God to help you continue to stand firm and serve Him wholeheartedly.

Wednesday: Daniel 6:1-23. Reflect: Daniel did not allow the issues of the day to change what he did on a daily basis before God. What do you need to get back to doing, 'just as you did before'?

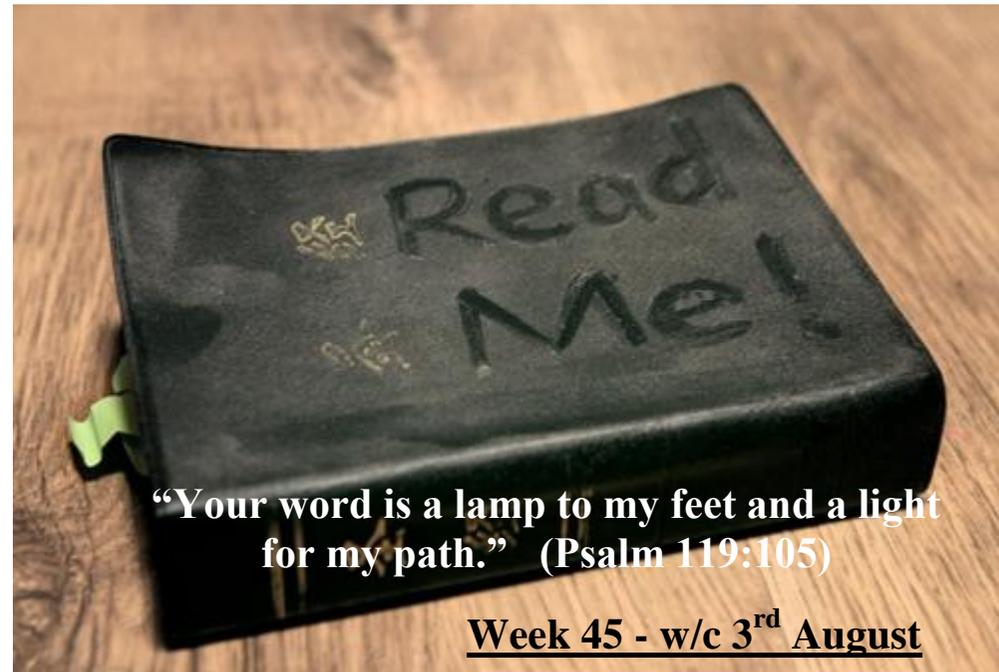

Thursday: Ecclesiastes 3:1-15. Think: God looks at time (3:14-15) completely differently from man (3:1-9). What is the difference between the way God and man look at time?

Friday: Ecclesiastes 12:1-14. Finally: The writer summarises what he has found to be the secret of fulfilment and true wisdom. What does he say it is (v13-14)?

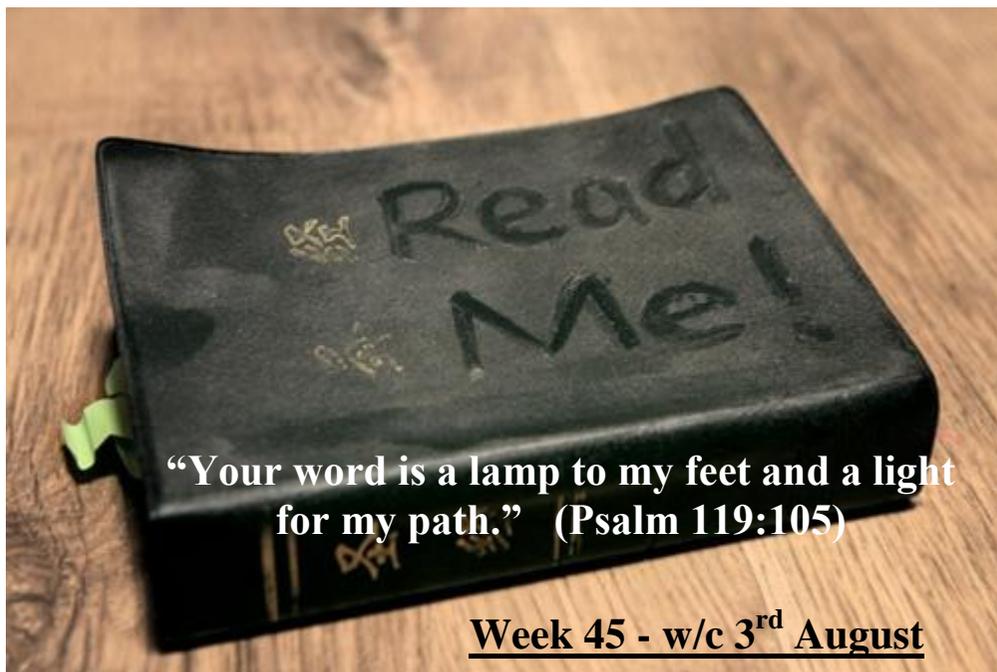

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” (Psalm 119:105)

Week 45 - w/c 3rd August

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” (Psalm 119:105)

Week 45 - w/c 3rd August

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” (Psalm 119:105)

Week 45 - w/c 3rd August

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” (Psalm 119:105)

Week 45 - w/c 3rd August