

Monday: Ezra 3:7-13. Think: The people rejoiced and praised God as they began rebuilding the temple and laying its foundation, which signalled a new beginning. Is there a new foundation that needs to be laid in your life, removing the old and establishing something new that honours God?

Tuesday: Nehemiah 2:1-18. Apply: A message reaches Nehemiah that the enemy had broken down the walls of Jerusalem and burned its gates making it vulnerable to attack. What three points does Nehemiah make in light of what had happened that we can apply to our own lives (v17-18)?

Wednesday: Haggai 1:1-15. Thought: After 18 years of starts and stops in rebuilding the temple, Haggai brings a strong word from God. The people were selfish, had misplaced priorities and had left God off their agenda. Is God getting your best or do you have other priorities? Give careful thought to your ways.

Thursday: Zechariah 8:1-23. Praise: Zechariah foresees countless blessings as God's people come back to Him. The Lord promises to bless them in so many ways. Think of all the ways that God has blessed you and give Him praise.

Friday: Malachi 3:6 - 4:6. Challenge: It would seem that these people were withholding their tithes and offerings, disobeying God's instructions to them. As the Lord challenges them to obey Him, what does He say will be the outcome?

Monday: Ezra 3:7-13. Think: The people rejoiced and praised God as they began rebuilding the temple and laying its foundation, which signalled a new beginning. Is there a new foundation that needs to be laid in your life, removing the old and establishing something new that honours God?

Tuesday: Nehemiah 2:1-18. Apply: A message reaches Nehemiah that the enemy had broken down the walls of Jerusalem and burned its gates making it vulnerable to attack. What three points does Nehemiah make in light of what had happened that we can apply to our own lives (v17-18)?

Wednesday: Haggai 1:1-15. Thought: After 18 years of starts and stops in rebuilding the temple, Haggai brings a strong word from God. The people were selfish, had misplaced priorities and had left God off their agenda. Is God getting your best or do you have other priorities? Give careful thought to your ways.

Thursday: Zechariah 8:1-23. Praise: Zechariah foresees countless blessings as God's people come back to Him. The Lord promises to bless them in so many ways. Think of all the ways that God has blessed you and give Him praise.

Friday: Malachi 3:6 - 4:6. Challenge: It would seem that these people were withholding their tithes and offerings, disobeying God's instructions to them. As the Lord challenges them to obey Him, what does He say will be the outcome?

Monday: Ezra 3:7-13. Think: The people rejoiced and praised God as they began rebuilding the temple and laying its foundation, which signalled a new beginning. Is there a new foundation that needs to be laid in your life, removing the old and establishing something new that honours God?

Tuesday: Nehemiah 2:1-18. Apply: A message reaches Nehemiah that the enemy had broken down the walls of Jerusalem and burned its gates making it vulnerable to attack. What three points does Nehemiah make in light of what had happened that we can apply to our own lives (v17-18)?

Wednesday: Haggai 1:1-15. Thought: After 18 years of starts and stops in rebuilding the temple, Haggai brings a strong word from God. The people were selfish, had misplaced priorities and had left God off their agenda. Is God getting your best or do you have other priorities? Give careful thought to your ways.

Thursday: Zechariah 8:1-23. Praise: Zechariah foresees countless blessings as God's people come back to Him. The Lord promises to bless them in so many ways. Think of all the ways that God has blessed you and give Him praise.

Friday: Malachi 3:6 - 4:6. Challenge: It would seem that these people were withholding their tithes and offerings, disobeying God's instructions to them. As the Lord challenges them to obey Him, what does He say will be the outcome?

Monday: Ezra 3:7-13. Think: The people rejoiced and praised God as they began rebuilding the temple and laying its foundation, which signalled a new beginning. Is there a new foundation that needs to be laid in your life, removing the old and establishing something new that honours God?

Tuesday: Nehemiah 2:1-18. Apply: A message reaches Nehemiah that the enemy had broken down the walls of Jerusalem and burned its gates making it vulnerable to attack. What three points does Nehemiah make in light of what had happened that we can apply to our own lives (v17-18)?

Wednesday: Haggai 1:1-15. Thought: After 18 years of starts and stops in rebuilding the temple, Haggai brings a strong word from God. The people were selfish, had misplaced priorities and had left God off their agenda. Is God getting your best or do you have other priorities? Give careful thought to your ways.

Thursday: Zechariah 8:1-23. Praise: Zechariah foresees countless blessings as God's people come back to Him. The Lord promises to bless them in so many ways. Think of all the ways that God has blessed you and give Him praise.

Friday: Malachi 3:6 - 4:6. Challenge: It would seem that these people were withholding their tithes and offerings, disobeying God's instructions to them. As the Lord challenges them to obey Him, what does He say will be the outcome?

