

Monday: 1 Corinthians 12:12-31. Think: God has put us exactly where he wants us to be with particular gifts to be used by Him for the benefit of others. (v18). Are you using your gifts and time in the most effective way to support and help others?

Tuesday: 1 Corinthians 13:1-13. Reflect: Paul says this is the greatest gift to eagerly desire (1 Cor 12:31). How eagerly do we seek after it? Are we ready to love whatever the cost? Demonstrate one aspect of God's love to someone today.

Wednesday: 1 Corinthians 14:1-33. Consider verse 18: The Bible encourages us to speak in tongues, personally and in meetings, as long as this is done in an orderly manner so that everyone can benefit. Do you value speaking in tongues in the same way?

Thursday: 1 Corinthians 15:1-28. Practice verse 3 today! What Paul received from God he was prepared to pass on to others to build them up. What speaks to you from this passage that you could pass on to someone else today?

Friday: 2 Corinthians 12:1-10. Think: How do we react to problems or situations we don't understand? Can you delight in them like Paul (v10) trusting God knows what He's doing? Or do you let them drag you down and miss out on what He is teaching you?

Monday: 1 Corinthians 12:12-31. Think: God has put us exactly where he wants us to be with particular gifts to be used by Him for the benefit of others. (v18). Are you using your gifts and time in the most effective way to support and help others?

Tuesday: 1 Corinthians 13:1-13. Reflect: Paul says this is the greatest gift to eagerly desire (1 Cor 12:31). How eagerly do we seek after it? Are we ready to love whatever the cost? Demonstrate one aspect of God's love to someone today.

Wednesday: 1 Corinthians 14:1-33. Consider verse 18: The Bible encourages us to speak in tongues, personally and in meetings, as long as this is done in an orderly manner so that everyone can benefit. Do you value speaking in tongues in the same way?

Thursday: 1 Corinthians 15:1-28. Practice verse 3 today! What Paul received from God he was prepared to pass on to others to build them up. What speaks to you from this passage that you could pass on to someone else today?

Friday: 2 Corinthians 12:1-10. Think: How do we react to problems or situations we don't understand? Can you delight in them like Paul (v10) trusting God knows what He's doing? Or do you let them drag you down and miss out on what He is teaching you?

Monday: 1 Corinthians 12:12-31. Think: God has put us exactly where he wants us to be with particular gifts to be used by Him for the benefit of others. (v18). Are you using your gifts and time in the most effective way to support and help others?

Tuesday: 1 Corinthians 13:1-13. Reflect: Paul says this is the greatest gift to eagerly desire (1 Cor 12:31). How eagerly do we seek after it? Are we ready to love whatever the cost? Demonstrate one aspect of God's love to someone today.

Wednesday: 1 Corinthians 14:1-33. Consider verse 18: The Bible encourages us to speak in tongues, personally and in meetings, as long as this is done in an orderly manner so that everyone can benefit. Do you value speaking in tongues in the same way?

Thursday: 1 Corinthians 15:1-28. Practice verse 3 today! What Paul received from God he was prepared to pass on to others to build them up. What speaks to you from this passage that you could pass on to someone else today?

Friday: 2 Corinthians 12:1-10. Think: How do we react to problems or situations we don't understand? Can you delight in them like Paul (v10) trusting God knows what He's doing? Or do you let them drag you down and miss out on what He is teaching you?

Monday: 1 Corinthians 12:12-31. Think: God has put us exactly where he wants us to be with particular gifts to be used by Him for the benefit of others. (v18). Are you using your gifts and time in the most effective way to support and help others?

Tuesday: 1 Corinthians 13:1-13. Reflect: Paul says this is the greatest gift to eagerly desire (1 Cor 12:31). How eagerly do we seek after it? Are we ready to love whatever the cost? Demonstrate one aspect of God's love to someone today.

Wednesday: 1 Corinthians 14:1-33. Consider verse 18: The Bible encourages us to speak in tongues, personally and in meetings, as long as this is done in an orderly manner so that everyone can benefit. Do you value speaking in tongues in the same way?

Thursday: 1 Corinthians 15:1-28. Practice verse 3 today! What Paul received from God he was prepared to pass on to others to build them up. What speaks to you from this passage that you could pass on to someone else today?

Friday: 2 Corinthians 12:1-10. Think: How do we react to problems or situations we don't understand? Can you delight in them like Paul (v10) trusting God knows what He's doing? Or do you let them drag you down and miss out on what He is teaching you?

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” (Psalm 119:105)

Week 49 - w/c 31st August

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” (Psalm 119:105)

Week 49 - w/c 31st August

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” (Psalm 119:105)

Week 49 - w/c 31st August

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.” (Psalm 119:105)

Week 49 - w/c 31st August