

Monday: 2 Thessalonians 2:1–17. Proclaim: The Lawless one will display counterfeit miracles, signs and wonders and seek to deceive, but we are to stand firm and hold onto the truth of the Gospel - share that truth today by your words and deeds.

Tuesday: 2 Peter 1:1–21. Reflect: If we take note of the advice in v5 - v8 then our lives will be effective and productive. In which of these areas do you need to grow and increase so that you get to know Jesus better and become more like Him?

Wednesday: Revelation 1:9 – 2:7. Consider: Commendation, complaint and correction are the general pattern of the letters from Jesus to these historical churches. The letter to Ephesus highlights how Christians can lose their first love for Christ and one another. What advice does Jesus give us in 2:5 that you can apply to your life today?

Thursday: Revelation 3:1–22. Apply: Listen to the words of the Spirit blowing through the churches. Which verse speaks to you the most today and how will you respond to what the Lord is saying to you through His word?

Friday: Revelation 4:1 – 5:14. Praise: Give thanks for the glimpse into heaven that Revelation gives us! In symbolic images and language, we can see that Jesus, the Lamb is at the centre of the Throne. Worship Him today for He is truly worthy.

Monday: 2 Thessalonians 2:1–17. Proclaim: The Lawless one will display counterfeit miracles, signs and wonders and seek to deceive, but we are to stand firm and hold onto the truth of the Gospel - share that truth today by your words and deeds.

Tuesday: 2 Peter 1:1–21. Reflect: If we take note of the advice in v5 - v8 then our lives will be effective and productive. In which of these areas do you need to grow and increase so that you get to know Jesus better and become more like Him?

Wednesday: Revelation 1:9 – 2:7. Consider: Commendation, complaint and correction are the general pattern of the letters from Jesus to these historical churches. The letter to Ephesus highlights how Christians can lose their first love for Christ and one another. What advice does Jesus give us in 2:5 that you can apply to your life today?

Thursday: Revelation 3:1–22. Apply: Listen to the words of the Spirit blowing through the churches. Which verse speaks to you the most today and how will you respond to what the Lord is saying to you through His word?

Friday: Revelation 4:1 – 5:14. Praise: Give thanks for the glimpse into heaven that Revelation gives us! In symbolic images and language, we can see that Jesus, the Lamb is at the centre of the Throne. Worship Him today for He is truly worthy.

Monday: 2 Thessalonians 2:1–17. Proclaim: The Lawless one will display counterfeit miracles, signs and wonders and seek to deceive, but we are to stand firm and hold onto the truth of the Gospel - share that truth today by your words and deeds.

Tuesday: 2 Peter 1:1–21. Reflect: If we take note of the advice in v5 - v8 then our lives will be effective and productive. In which of these areas do you need to grow and increase so that you get to know Jesus better and become more like Him?

Wednesday: Revelation 1:9 – 2:7. Consider: Commendation, complaint and correction are the general pattern of the letters from Jesus to these historical churches. The letter to Ephesus highlights how Christians can lose their first love for Christ and one another. What advice does Jesus give us in 2:5 that you can apply to your life today?

Thursday: Revelation 3:1–22. Apply: Listen to the words of the Spirit blowing through the churches. Which verse speaks to you the most today and how will you respond to what the Lord is saying to you through His word?

Friday: Revelation 4:1 – 5:14. Praise: Give thanks for the glimpse into heaven that Revelation gives us! In symbolic images and language, we can see that Jesus, the Lamb is at the centre of the Throne. Worship Him today for He is truly worthy.

Monday: 2 Thessalonians 2:1–17. Proclaim: The Lawless one will display counterfeit miracles, signs and wonders and seek to deceive, but we are to stand firm and hold onto the truth of the Gospel - share that truth today by your words and deeds.

Tuesday: 2 Peter 1:1–21. Reflect: If we take note of the advice in v5 - v8 then our lives will be effective and productive. In which of these areas do you need to grow and increase so that you get to know Jesus better and become more like Him?

Wednesday: Revelation 1:9 – 2:7. Consider: Commendation, complaint and correction are the general pattern of the letters from Jesus to these historical churches. The letter to Ephesus highlights how Christians can lose their first love for Christ and one another. What advice does Jesus give us in 2:5 that you can apply to your life today?

Thursday: Revelation 3:1–22. Apply: Listen to the words of the Spirit blowing through the churches. Which verse speaks to you the most today and how will you respond to what the Lord is saying to you through His word?

Friday: Revelation 4:1 – 5:14. Praise: Give thanks for the glimpse into heaven that Revelation gives us! In symbolic images and language, we can see that Jesus, the Lamb is at the centre of the Throne. Worship Him today for He is truly worthy.

