	Exploring	Engaging	Christ-Focused	Christ-centred
Personal	Relating to God	Acquaintances	Friends	Good Friends	Intimate Friends
	Prayer and Meditation	Sometimes I pray (eg at the beginning or end of the day, or at meals)	I pray for the needs of others in my life, community and around the world. I reflect on my day, and confess struggles to God.	I set aside intentional time each day to pray and learn new methods of prayer. I have a prayer partner/cell group to encourage me. I pray in tongues.	I continue to increase my prayer life by learning and practising contemplative prayer and fasting. I lead others in prayer.
Church	Reflection	I occasionally read the Bible for knowledge and understanding.	I read the Bible for knowledge and understanding, and also listen to how God speaks to me through Scripture.	I spend time most days reading and reflecting on Scripture to listen to God speaking to me. I study Scripture with others.	I hear from God regularly through Scripture. I reflect upon Scripture or write personal reflections.
	Corporate Worship	I attend worship when a friend invites me, or I feel a need.	I attend worship once or twice a month and realise that God is present with me every day.	I participate in worship regularly and set aside time to connect with God daily.	I live my life increasingly aware of God's presence and seek to please God in all I do. I see my life as a life of worship. I sometimes lead worship in cell or in church.
	Small Group	I am loosely connected to or interested in a cell group or other small group.	I regularly attend a cell group or other small group eg Oasis fellowship.	I am involved and interconnected with my group. The group is an important part of my spiritual practice.	I contribute to my group and encourage others by being with them mentally and spiritually. I am learning to be honest with this trusted group.
	Gift-based Service	I am exploring that I have God given gifts and I am looking for ways in which I can help others.	I am actively seeking baptism in the Holy Spirit or I speak in tongues regularly. I am open to receiving spiritual gifts.	I am becoming aware of my spiritual gifts or I am using my spiritual and natural gifts to make God's love real in the church and world.	I am actively pursuing ways to sharpen my gifts (practise, studies, classes, etc) even if it takes me outside my comfort zone. I am open to new spiritual gifts and areas of service.

Financial Generosity	I thank God for providing for my needs. I occasionally give a monetary offering and consider it a response to God's love and provision in my life.	I budget money to give to God's work. When I hear about critical needs, I give. I am considering what it means to tithe. I am committed to move towards giving 10% of income to the church.	I've committed to a tithe, I have studied finances from a spiritual perspective and consider how I spend my income because all I have belongs to God.	I am committed to live a life defined by generosity as I'm led by God. I give at least a tithe and respond with more when prompted to do so. I consider how all assets can be used by God during my lifetime and beyond.
Relational Evangelism	I respect others who can talk about their faith and I am exploring questions in my own faith.	I am building friendships and I am willing to accept others as they are. I invite others to church or church events.	I am actively trying to relate more to people outside of the church in ways that reflect God's love and acceptance of them. I share my faith.	I intentionally seek to build relationships with people in order to share God's love. I encourage others on their faith journey.
