

Week 200 w/c 6/9/2020

Monday: John 14:1-14. Jesus said that “Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father.” What can you do to help people “see” Jesus in your life and witness today?

Tuesday: Deuteronomy 17:1-20. The first verse of the chapter emphasises a clear principle: our worship and offerings to God must be the best we can give, and we certainly must not give him our “leftovers” or anything flawed. In your praise and worship do you always give of your very best? What needs to change to ensure this is the case today?

Wednesday: 2 Chronicles 10:1-19. This split in the nation of Israel caused immense turmoil and difficulty and led to the ultimate destruction of the 10 northern tribes. And it happened because Rehoboam listened to the wrong advisers (vv13-14). Who are the people you turn to for sound advice? Pray for them today and thank God for them.

Thursday: Psalm 130:1-131:3. Write out Psalm 130 verse 3. Keep it in your purse or wallet or with your phone, and every time you mess up, do something ungodly, or fall into sin, read this verse as you ask forgiveness. Because Jesus paid the penalty for our sins, when we forgive, God promises never to remember our sin again.

Friday: Hosea 7:1-16. When God reached out in love and grace to Israel they simply sinned more (Hosea 7:1-2). Do you take forgiveness for granted? Do you recognize the awful fact that your sin nailed Jesus to the cross? God called Ephraim “half baked” (v8) – in other words only partly committed to God and partly to pagan practices. Are you 100% for Jesus? If not, why not, and what will you do to change?

Weekend: James 1:12-27. The word of God is likened to a mirror in verse 23. The Bible has the power to change us by reflecting and revealing our true nature, motivation, and attitudes. But being a doer and not just a hearer means that we must choose to respond to what it reveals. What is God revealing in you that demands a response of obedience?
