

Week 216 - w/c 27/12/20

Monday: John 21:1-17. The disciples chose to go back to fishing. When we are unsure what to do, like the disciples, we often revert to familiar activities and behaviour. That isn't a problem as long as we are open to Jesus intervening and speaking to us. What activities relax you and enable you to hear the voice of God more clearly.

Tuesday: Deuteronomy 31:30-32:21. God's love and care for Israel is expressed here in poetic language. One thing made God angry above all others. Read v 16 to see what it is. Do you allow other things to become "gods" or "idols" And take God's central position?

Wednesday: 2 Chronicles 26:1-23. Azariah confronted the powerful King Uzziah when he saw him doing what was wrong. (vv17-18) How willing are you to confront wrong attitudes at work or in your circle of friends? How courageous are you for God's standards to be upheld?

Thursday: Proverbs 26:1-11. Which of the proverbs here speaks most to you? Why? How can you live out the principle behind the verse in your life this week?

Friday: Amos 6:1-14. God warns Israel that their apathy and complacency are offensive to God. He was raising up a nation against them to shake them and cause them to turn back to himself. Assuming we can do things by our own strength and ability is the root cause of the problem. How do you maintain a humble trust in God in the areas where you may consider yourself to be strong?

Saturday: 1 Peter 4:12-19. Write out verse 19 in your own words. How does understanding God as the "Faithful Creator" help you when you struggle or face suffering?
