Missions Sunday

We will be holding Missions Sunday this year on Sunday 27th June and there will be an opportunity to give or pledge gifts to the work of missions on that date. There will also be a short video from John & Rachel McDonough, our missionaries in Paraguay, during the service.

Elim Leaders Summit

The Elim Leaders Summit takes place next week and the two evening celebrations will be streamed live on Elim's YouTube channel – elim.org.uk/youtube. On Wednesday 23rd June at 7.30 pm Chris Cartwright will be speaking on "What does the next chapter look like?" and on Thursday 24 June at 7.30pm, Danielle Strickland will speak on "How do we announce the news of God's coming Kingdom to a culture that seems oblivious, uninterested and opposed to the message?". Take time out to join these evening celebrations if you are able to.

Vaccination Centre

The vaccination centre is now up and running and reached full capacity on the first day of opening yesterday. There are still opportunities for volunteers to get involved - contact Alan to be added to the WhatsApp group if you have any availability on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays or Saturdays and can help.

Church Finance

Thanks to all who continue to give sacrificially to the church – our offerings for May totalled £12,622.77. Also thanks to those who are giving interest free loans to the church to help with the purchase of chairs and roof repairs. The funds for this can now be passed to Jane at your earliest convenience along with the relevant forms.

Keswick Convention

A reminder that the Keswick Convention is running from 17th July to 6th August. Anyone wishing to attend should register for the week they are coming and indicate the main sessions they'd like to attend. Registration for the weeks is not a guarantee of a seat at a specific event but you will be advised in due course if you can go to all or just some of the events. To register go to keswickministries.org/2021-convention-registration/.
