Week 13

Monday: Exodus 14:1-31. In verse 15 God tells Moses to stop praying because he had already told Moses what to do (v1). Moses had passed it on to the people in v13. What has God told you to do that needs your obedience and not more prayer?

Tuesday: Exodus 15:1-27. After God had brought about a great victory, only three days into the journey they began to grumble and complain because things had got tough. How do you respond when things get tough and what can we learn from Moses' response?

Wednesday: Exodus 16:1-36. God provided the Israelites with bread and meat in response to their grumbling, yet even then some do not obey him or respond in faith. Pray for people you know that God has blessed but who still do not respond in real faith.

Thursday: Exodus 17:1-16. A great example of prayer. Instead of a banner as a rallying point for the army, God's rallying call to us is to lift up our hands in intercession, praying for his purposes to be accomplished in the lives of others.

Friday: Exodus 18:1-27. Jethro, Moses' father-in-law picked up on the fact that Moses was doing everything himself. What are the dangers of this and how good are you at delegating responsibility out to others?

Weekend: Exodus 19:1-25. Before giving the Ten Commandments, God called Moses and Aaron to meet him on Mount Sinai, but nobody else was permitted to climb the mountain (vv 23, 24). What does this tell you about entering God's Presence?
