Week 51

Monday: Numbers 15:1-41 The same laws applied to strangers and immigrants as for native Israelites in verses 14 & 15. This principle of racial equality was God's idea, not invented by 20th century politicians! Do you treat people of whatever background or race with equal love and concern?

Tuesday: Numbers 16:1-24 This passage tells us much about Moses' character. V15 shows that although Moses was angry, he left the situation up to God. This verse also shows that Moses was a man of integrity. V22 shows that Moses was a man of prayer and he had great love for the people, he did not want them to die because of the sins of one man. Which of these characteristics do you need to work on the most?

Wednesday: Numbers 16:23-50 The consequences of sin and rebellion go beyond the actions of any one individual. Our family and friends must live with the consequences of our wrong decisions and actions. Our actions and our attitudes matter, bringing either sorrow or blessing to others as well as ourselves.

Thursday: Numbers 17:1-13 This was a case where a "small" miracle would have been convincing. God could have merely made a little green leaf sprout from Aaron's rod alone, and that would have, or should have, been enough. God gives us more than enough evidence. Do you ever have a lack of willingness to see what He has made clear?

Friday: Numbers 18:1-32 Read verses 25-29 again. Have you understood the principle of tithing? It is not only giving a tenth of what you have to God's work but also giving the very best of your resources, time, energy, finance, possessions, to be used in your service to God. How does this apply to you today?

Weekend: Numbers 19:1-22 One who was unclean needed purification but was still part of the nation – unless they refused to correct their unclean condition. Read John 13:5-11. We must receive the beautiful once-for-all cleansing Jesus brings to us when we are born again; yet continually come to Him to be cleansed of the "day-to-day" things. What do you need cleansed of today?
