

Bible Readings Book by Book week 57 – w/c 4/12/22

Week 57

Monday: Proverbs 5:1-14. This advice given by a father to his sons is as important today as it was then. Which verse stands out for you, and why?

Tuesday: Proverbs 5:15-23. Are you conscious that your “ways are in full view” of God and that he sees your heart, your actions, your motives? How should this thought make you feel, and respond?

Wednesday: Proverbs 6:1-11. These verses give some good advice in two situations: when we are feeling trapped by a bad decision and when we are feeling lazy. What can you take as a good principle to apply in your life? Ask God to help you apply it.

Thursday: Proverbs 6:12-19. Most things in the list of things that God hates may not challenge us, but verse 19 does. On Facebook or in life, when we highlight another person’s faults or criticize them we can find ourselves “liking” what God hates.

Friday: Proverbs 6:20-35. These verses give a number of reasons to avoid sexual involvements with people married to someone else. They are still as relevant today as they were in Old Testament days. Which one or two strike you as most appropriate in your culture today?

Weekend: Romans 1:1-17. V17 is probably the key verse of the whole book, and definitely the key to chapter 1! It introduces Paul’s theme as he writes to the Christians at Rome: Getting right with God is not about our efforts but about trusting in what Jesus did on the cross. Thank God that it is faith that gives us the power to live for Him.
