Week 118

Monday: Proverbs 7:6-27. Adultery (having sexual relations with somebody we are not married to) is hardly considered an issue in these days. But adultery kills spiritual life, and inappropriate sex is a snare that the devil uses to great effect. Ask God to keep your thoughts and actions pure.

Tuesday: Proverbs 8:1-21. Read verse 11 again slowly two or three times. Meditate on the value of wisdom. Do you desire it more than wealth, gadgets, or any other possession?

Wednesday: Proverbs 8:22-31. These verses about wisdom speak of it's importance and value. How much do you value wisdom, and obtaining it? What do you allow to take control of your value system instead of seeking to live wisely?

Thursday: Proverbs 8:32-36. Are you a child of wisdom? (v32) What practical steps can you take to apply verse 34 in your life today?

Friday: Proverbs 9:1-9. How do you respond when people criticize you? Compare your response to verses 7-9. Which category do you fall into - someone wise or righteous or someone cynical, sarcastic or wicked?

Weekend: Proverbs 9:10-18. To fear the Lord means having a right respect and awe for God. Coming to know him is the path to understanding life and avoiding folly. Write down verse 10 on a piece of paper and read it every time you eat or drink today!
