Week 119

Monday: Proverbs 10:1-10. Which of these proverbs has application in your life at the present time? Do you need to take to heart something about hard work, or integrity, or advice, or gossip? Ask God to help you improve in this area?

Tuesday: Proverbs 10:11-21. These proverbs speak into the way we talk, and our attitudes in general. What do you learn from one of them that you can seek to respond to in prayer and lifestyle today?

Wednesday: Proverbs 10:22-32. We might re-phrase v26 as “Lazy people are a source of irritation for employers!” Either apply this verse in your own life or look at another of these proverbs and re-phrase it in your own language for your life today.

Thursday: Proverbs 11:1-9. Verse 1 reveals one way we can find favour with God. What is it? What else can you do today that God promises will please him?

Friday: Proverbs 11:10-19. These verses teach about national government, as well as about personal relationships and behavior. Choose one verse and make it your prayer for today either for yourself, someone else, or our nation.

Weekend: Proverbs 11:20-31. These verses give wise counsel on finding favour with God, the need for discretion, generosity, soul winning, and the benefits of right living. In what area of your life does God’s wise counsel in these verses apply to you today?
